BY REVOLUTION VASQUEZ PLANS TO RULE AGAIN

Ex-President of Honduras Has the Support of Guatemala Government.

CONDITION IN GUATEMALA IS CONSIDERED CRITICAL

Execution of Prominent Men and Women Has Fanned Smoldering Embers, Which May Blaze Into Armed Resistance to Rule of President Cabrera.

Panama, May 1.—It is reported that Honduras is concentrating her forces on the Guatemalan frontier. Passengers who have arrived here recently from Guatemala say that a revolution was being planned against the Honduran government by General Domingo Vasquez, ex-president of Honduras, who is supposed to have the support of Guatemala.

This, they say, was the reason why Senor Bustillos, finance minister of Honduras, was sent on a special confidential mission to President Cabrera, of Guatemala, and why Cabrera, instead of treating with Bustillos, practically imprisoned him in Guatemala City.

Where Arms Were Secured.

After the latest war with Nicaragua, Honduras was left entirely disarmed, and should the reports of the Honduras military movements prove true, it is supposed that Nicaraguans and Salvadoreans have furnished her with munitions of war.

The situation in Guatemala is reported to be exceedingly critical. The passengers say that among the persons reported to have been executed there were Mrs. Castanedo and Mrs. Blanco, and Messrs. Herrera, Trigueras, Enwardo Rubio and Antonio Rubio, all of whom belonged to prominent wealthy Central American families.

During the past year all these persons had been incommunicado in the dungeon of the penitentiary in Guatemala City, and the passengers say that it was impossible for them to have participated in the recent attempt on the life of President Cabrera.

They add that the executions were considered cruel and unnecessary, and that the relatives of those persons put to death, who are rich and powerful, will not rest until they have succeeded in bringing about the downfall of Cabrera.

DAY OF ROUTINE IN HOUSE.

Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill Took Up the Whole Day.

Washington, May 1.—The house spent all of today's session in the reading and passing, paragraph by paragraph, under suspension of the rules, the sundry civil appropriation bill.

As the outcome of the determined effort to strike from the bill a restriction, prohibiting the employment of secret service operatives in any detective work other than the guarding of the president and running down of counterfeiters, which effort was vigorously opposed by members of the appropriations committee, the limitation was agreed to and the paragraph adopted in substantially its original form.

Objection by democratic members, in pursuance of the minority filibuster, to unanimous consent defeated the passage of a bill for the printing and distributing of 100,000 copies of a special report by the department of agriculture describing diseases of cattle.

At 5:14 the house took a recess until tomorrow morning at 11:30 o'clock.

TO ERECT EMBASSY BUILDING

Four Hundred Thousand Dollars to Be Spent in Paris.

Washington, May 1.—The senate committee on appropriations today took the first step looking to the acquisition of property for the American embassy at Paris by inserting an advertisement in the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill appropriating $400,000 for the purchase of a site and the erection of a building for the use of the embassy in that city.

An appropriation of $8,267, also was made for the purchase of the residence of the Japanese secretary of the American embassy at Tokio, Japan. Still another addition to the bill made by the committee is that of $10,000 to pay the expenses of representatives of the joint high commission of 1898 for the settlement of questions relating to Canada. All told the committee increased the appropriation carried by the diplomatic bill to the extent of $463,842 over the amount carried by the bill as it passed the house, bringing the total up to $3,967,985.

HETTY GREEN HAS NEVER USED THE TELEPHONE.

New York, May 1.—Although probably more actively in business than any other person in the country, Mrs. Hetty Green has never used a telephone. She said so yesterday, when in the office of a downtown trust company she asked an attendant to transmit a message for her. After the message was delivered, Mrs. Green expressed her thanks, explaining why she had asked assistance.

SAVANNAH MEN CONFER WITH AUTO CUP DONOR

New York, May 1.—The place for the automobile race for the Vanderbilt cup will not be decided immediately, as Harvey Granger and A. W. Solomon, of Savannah, Ga., requested. The two Georgians, representing the Savannah Automobile Club, conferred today with W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., donor of the trophy, and J. D. Thompson, chairman of the Vanderbilt cup commission, regarding the advantage of Savannah for the race.

They promised that if an immediate decision could be given, Savannah would begin the construction of a 10-mile loop to the present course of 18 miles, to cost $40,000. They exhibited a letter from Governor Smith offering the use of 1,000 state troops to guard the course during the race. Messrs. Vanderbilt and Thompson explained that an immediate decision would be impossible, and Messrs. Granger and Solomon left soon after for Savannah.

Later Mr. Thompson said that it may be possible to obtain a race circuit nearer New York than Savannah. He said that if the race takes place in the north it will be held in October. Should the race go to Georgia it will be deferred until November.

VICTORY IN DENVER FIGHT CLAIMED BY BAILEY FORCES

Waco, Tex., May 1.—One of the most exciting political contests in the history of Texas closes tonight, and tomorrow democrats will vote on whether Senator Joseph W. Bailey and three others shall be sent to Denver as delegates at large to the national democratic convention, or whether a delegation of four democrats, headed by Hon. Cone Johnson, of Tyler, shall be sent.

Both sides claim victory.

SOCIALIST MASS MEETING CAPTURED BY ANARCHIST

New York, May 1.—Alexander Berkman, the anarchist, captured a May day mass meeting of socialists in Union Square today, and, despite the protests of the socialistic leaders who were on the speaking stand, addressed the assembled crowdfi which numbered less than 3,000 persons.

Berkman's address was brief and mild. He was warned by the police officials present, who permitted him to talk, that a fiery harangue would result in arrest.

Except for some heated arguments by the socialist leaders, when Berkman appeared and announced that he would speak, the meeting was conducted in an orderly manner, so that the 200 policemen on hand had little to do. When Berkman gained his point and was permitted to talk, because of the encouraging cries of the crowd and the consent of the police, the socialist leaders declared the meeting adpourned.

The leaders left the stand and many of their followers in the throng followed their lead and left the meeting, but quite a crowd remained and heard Berkman to the end. Berkman talked for about ten minutes and then the meeting closed. So small was the crowd that within five minutes after Berkman ceased speaking the park was clear of people.

ALL READY FOR THE EASTER EGG HUNT.

NO INDORSEMENT FOR GOVERNOR

Anti-Saloon League Committee Keeps Hands Off.

PLEA FOR CONSERVATISM

Executive Committee of Anti-Saloon League Decides to Pass Up a Resolution for No Indorsement to the Trustees for Action.

The executive committee of the Anti-Saloon League of Georgia, after a very spirited meeting yesterday morning, failed to make any indorsement of a candidate for governor.

A resolution stating that there was no necessity for the league to declare itself for either candidate was discussed and referred to the trustees of the league, some seventy in number, who reside all over the state.

Some members of the committee wanted to make an indorsement, while others warmly contended that there was no call for the league to take any action at all, since both candidates had declared themselves to be the friends of prohibition.

Several of the trustees were present at the meeting, and while taking part in the discussion, did not vote when final action was had.

Text of the Resolution.

Dr. J. W. Millard introduced the resolution which caused the discussion, and it was as follows:

Resolved, That the headquarters committee of the Georgia Anti-Saloon League makes the following recommendation to the trustees of the Georgia Anti-Saloon League, that in the opinion of the headquarters committee no necessity exists for the Georgia Anti-Saloon League to declare itself on either side of the gubernatorial campaign, inasmuch as both candidates have declared themselves friends of the present prohibition law and have pledged themselves to maintain the integrity of the same.

The committee, however, takes this opportunity to urge the friends of prohibition everywhere in the state to vote only for those candidates for the legislature who stand out and out for the maintenance of prohibition in Georgia.

Against Partisan Stand.

In introducing the resolution Dr. Millard said:

"It would be suicidal for the league to take any stand other than pointed out in this resolution. Both candidates have pledged themselves, and we have no right to go behind these statements and brand one or the other a liar, for that is what it means. You all know how I stand personlly. I expect to vote for Hoke Smith, but I do not think this organization should take a partisan stand."

In seconding the motion to adopt the resolution, F. L. Seely, another member of the headquarters committee, urged the members not to inject politics into an organization, the purpose of which was to secure prohibition.

Dr. R. F. Eakes spoke for the resolution ,and made an earnest plea for conservatism.

R. J. Guinn, one of the trustees, thought the league should indorse Governor Hoke Smith.

Rev. J. L. D. Hillyer, also a trustee, favored a decisive stand being taken for a candidate.

Dr. E. C. Cartledge spoke for Dr. Millard's resolution, and believed it might be well to state in the resolution that if the whisky element was supporting Joseph M .Brown, it was not that gentleman's fault.

"Now just suppose we should indorse

BRYAN THE MAN TO LEAD PARTY

So De Armond and Hughes Tell Democrats of District.

Washington, D. C., May 1.—Representative David De Armond, of Missouri, in an address before the District of Columbia Democratic Association, last night, declared that the people of Missouri look upon W. J. Bryan as the logical candidate for the president, and that Missouri's delegates will support him unanimously at the Denver convention.

Mr. De Armond said, in part:

"Some people criticize Mr. Bryan, and say 'he ran in 1896, he ran in 1900, he is the perpetual candidate; he is the man always to the front.' Whoever got there with less self-seeking, and is in more thorough accord with the wishes of those who followed him than Mr. Bryan?

"Is there anything wrong in his being willing to stand again as the candidate of his party, if his party wants him? What is he doing now, or what has he done to put himself in the way of the nomination at Denver, that any man can criticize? He stands as an honor to our American citizenship; he stands as one of the highest and noblest types of men—a Christian, patriotic gentleman."

Representative Hughes, of New Jersey, also spoke. He said that there are probably 1,000 democratic voters in his state who would oppose Mr. Bryan, if nominated. The uninstructed delegation, he said, may support the Nebraskan in the convention.

Representative Hughes spoke, in part, as follows:

"I am for Mr. Bryan, because I think he is right. Let us look at it from the standpoint of the politician. I am for Mr. Bryan for another reason. While he may not carry the state of New Jersey or the state of New York—and I do not say that he could not carry those states—it is my firm belief that he is going to get more votes in those states than any other candidate that can be named by the democratic party."

"SAFE SEAT" FOR CHURCHILL.

Has Opposition for That, but Will Probably Win.

Dundee, May 1.—Winston Spencer Churchill, president of the board of trade, whose recent failure to be returned to parliament from the northwest division of Manchester, has forced him to seek a "safe" seat, arrived here this morning to contest the vacancy caused by the elevation to the peerage of Edmund Robertson. Mr. Churchill has a well organized opposition to fight, but it will require an enormous turn-over of votes to defeat him. The unionist candidate, Sir George Baxter, has a powerful local influence, and the labor candidate, C. H. Stuart, while a novelty in this country, is an out-and-out prohibitionist. E. Scrymgeour, of the United Irish League, is urging the Irish voters to give their complete support to Mr. Churchill on the ground that Premier Asquith has adopted Mr. Churchill's pledges at Manchester regarding home rule for Ireland as representing the policy of the government.

BRITON WOULDN'T STAND FOR "WAY DOWN EAST."

London May 1.—The American play, "Way Down East," which was put on at the Aldwych theater April 23, with an American cast, closed its run tonight. The life portrayed by the play did not appeal to British audiences.

FOR TWO HOURS DAVIS TALKED

Then Senators Transacted Some Business.

DAVIS ASSAILED THE PRESS

When He Closed His Harangue the Senate Took Up Resolution of Senator Elkins to Suspend the Commodity Clause of Hepburn Act.

Washington, May 1.—The time of the senate was taken up for two hours today with a speech by Senator Jeff Davis asking that the committee on judiciary be discharged from further consideration of his bill for the suppression of trusts.

The remainder of the day was given over to the consideration of a resolution by Senator Elkins suspending until January 1, 1910, the commodity clause of the Hepburn railroad rate law. The resolution provoked so much debate and so many amendments were offered dealing with other phases of the railroad rate legislation, that the whole matter went over till Monday, tomorrow being given over to eulogies for the late senators from Florida. It the meantime the senate leaders hope to perfect a resolution that can be agreed upon next Monday.

The commodity clause under the provisions of the Hepburn bill went into effect today, and railroads, therefore, which haul interstate commerce products of mines or manufactories in which the carriers are interested, are liable to maximum fines of $5,000 for offense. The Elkins resolution proposes to give the railroads twenty months additional in which to divorce themselves from these properties, on the ground that the financial condition of the country has been such that the railroads have been unable to find buyers, and to settle such questions of joint ownership as are involved in mortgages covering both the railroad property and mining or manufacturing property. Mr. Elkins used this argument in pleading for the adoption of his resolution. Several senators, notably Messrs. Culberson and Nelson, argued that the railroads had not assumed an attitude that entitled them to consideration. With the whole subject unsettled and many amendments pending, the senate at 4:29 p. m. adjourned.

Senator Davis' Speech.

In the senate today Senator Jeff Davis, of Arkansas, moved to discharge the committee on the judiciary from further consideration of his bill "for the suppression of trusts, pools and combinations in trade." He spoke for about two hours, reading most of the time from a typewritten statement, which he had prepared in advance, "that no intemperate language might escape his lips on this occasion," a thing which he said he had never done before.

Reading his speech, he roughly denounced the trusts, commended the president's recent message outlining measures for relief, spoke of the removal of the motto, "In God We Trust" from the coins, and declared that John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil Company and J. Pierpont Morgan should be indicted for treason. He also paid

BIG EASTER EGG HUNT AT PIEDMONT PARK TODAY

Ho! for the big Easter egg hunt today!

At Piedmont park, at 3 o'clock, the thousands of eager children will flock to search among the recesses of the park for the hidden eggs, some of them to call for beautiful prizes, and all to be lovely, eatable joys.

At 12 o'clock the general committee of one hundred ladies and gentlemen will meet and hide the thousands of eggs among the grasses, nooks and crannies of the park. The six hundred prizes will be displayed at the grandstand, all ready for distribution as soon as a child finds and presents a prize egg.

Before the hunt begins the grown folks will be admitted into the grandstand so they can have a full view of the hunt, and it will be a fine and inspiring spectacle to witness the thousands of happy, shouting children as they seek here and there for the hidden eggs, and to watch them as they rush up to the grandstand, prize egg in hand, to secure a prize.

The children under 12 years of age will be first admitted, and they will hunt for eggs within the race track paddock. A few minutes later the larger children will be admitted, and they will hunt in the park outside the paddock.

Wedemeyer's band will furnish the music, and they will do so free of charge as a donation to the children of Atlanta.

During the hunt two hundred gaily colored balloons will be sent up, making a beautiful aerial spectacle.

Immediately after the hunt the children will be asked to occupy the embankment to the north of the grandstand so the pictures can be taken for The Constitution.

The weather promises to be fair, and the grounds will be dry. So everything points to a gala occasion for the young people.

ATLANTA BOY WEDS GIRL HE SAVED FROM DROWNING

St. Louis, Mo., May 1.—The wedding of A. Braxton Suttles, son of General Albert Suttles, an Atlanta, Ga., planter, to Miss Margaret McGrath, at St. Briget's church, St. Louis, reveals the realization of a boyhood dream.

Years ago on his father's plantation near Atlanta, Suttles, who is now employed at photographer by the Missouri Engraving Company, saw a vision of himself saving the life of a young woman.

On a summer day two years ago Suttles was walking along the shore of Creve Cour lake, when he saw a boat, in which two young women were seated, suddenly capsize. He sprang into the water and succeeded in carrying one of the occupants safely to shore, while the second paddled the boat to shallow water.

Two weeks later Suttles was taken ill with pneumonia at his St. Louis residence. During his illness he frequently told his friends of having seen the young woman whom he pulled from the water, in his delirious dreams.

Later he met her on the street. The recognition was mutual and the two formed a fast friendship, resulting in the marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Dooley, in the presence of a few friends.

When the bridal couple reached their new home, 1818 Bacon street, they were greeted with huge posters, announcing the wedding. The interior of the house, too, had been decorated by their friends.

Miss McGrath is the daughter of the late Thomas McGrath, and lived with her mother.

IS DEATH NEAR TO CLEVELAND?

Report Says the Ex-President Has Cancer of the Stomach.

New York, May 1.—Considerable anxiety was occasioned today by widely circulated rumors that the condition of ex-President Grover Cleveland, who has been ill for several weeks at a hotel in Lakewood, N. J., had assumed a grave phase and that slight hopes were entertained of his recovery. The Evening World gave prominence to reports current at the offices of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, of which Mr. Cleveland is a voting trustee, that the former president's physicians had diagnosed his illness as cancer of the stomach and had decided that there was no hope of their distinguished patient's recovery.

Positive denial of these statements was not obtainable. Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, who has attended Mr. Cleveland for years, said that his patient "was all right," and that all his reports from Lakewood were favorable. In answer to a question as to whether Mr. Cleveland was suffering from cancer of the stomach, Dr. Bryant said that as a physician he could not make public the diagnosis in the case of any of his patients. Any information on such a subject, were it given to the public, should come from the family, he said.

At the Lakewood hotel it was said that Mr. Cleveland was making very satisfactory progress, and it was denied that his case had asumed a serious aspect.

WELLS-FARGO LOSES $63,000

Company Says Money Was Taken on City of Mexico Train.

Laredo, Tex., May 1.—The Wells-Fargo Express Company has reported to the authorities of Torreon, Mexico, a loss of $63,000 in Mexican currency which, they claim, was taken from a through safe on their City of Mexico train. The money was consigned to one of the banks of Chihuahua.

So far two arrests have been made in Torreon, although it is not believed by the officials here that the men who were arrested in Torreon have the money. The men apprehended say that they did not konw the combination of the safe which contained the money.

It appears that one of the agents of the company boarded the express train at a station between the City of Mexico and Torreon, afterwards leaving the train. It is said that he was the only man who was in the car who knew the combination of the safe. He is being searched for, but has not yet been apprehended.

BROWN CHEERS DELAY SPEECH OF GOVERNOR

MANY QUESTIONS ASKED BY VOTERS IN AUDIENCE

Governor Again Made Attack on the Georgia Railway and Electric Company—His Speech Was Along the Usual Line.

Frequently interrupted by questions from the audience, each of which was answered in turn; stopped for a while, a number of time, by the cries of "Brown, Brown, Brown," and often roundly applauded at some point he made, Governor Hoke Smith last night addressed between 1,200 and 1,600 voters in the auditorium of the Atlanta Buggy Company on Means street, near Marietta, in the second speech he has made in Atlanta since his second campaign for governor began.

To say that he addressed the voters of the Fifth ward and Cook's district would be but to express a partial truth, for there were many Hoke Smith enthusiasts in the audience and on the stage from other sections of the city, who went there to hear his speech and the questions put to him.

Many Questions Asked.

It was generally reported about the city in the afternoon that he would be roundly catechised at this meeting, and he was.

The governor, in his opening remarks, stated he wanted to be questioned.

He listened to each and made replies to each.

To only one question did the governor decline to answer. That was near the close of the evening when some one asked:

"How about Tom Watson?" To this the governor said: "That has nothing to do with this; he is no candidate; that is an irrelevant question."

He was asked: "How about immigration?" and he replied explaining he never favored indiscriminate immigration, and only favored importing certain agriculturists from Germany who in his opinion might easily amalgamate with the Georgia farmers.

He was asked: "How 'bout the free pass to the immigration agent?" to which he replied: "I didn't know anything about that until it was published in the papers; I don't approve of having any at all, and am satisfied he won't have them a week from today. In fairness to him I will say he has already taken steps to return them voluntarily."

He was asked: "How 'bout your lobbying?" and he replied that there had been certain concerted effort to defeat several measures, and he had invited legislators to his house and office in an effort to get them to vote right, and he would do it over again.

He was asked: "Who tends to Judge Hines' work when he is off 'lectioneering for you?"

"How long can a governor's chair be vacant?"

"How 'bout the Piedmont bar?"

"Why didn't you treat Little Joe with silent contempt?"

"Brown, Brown, Brown."

To each of these the governor made a reply, sometimes eliciting cheers and again getting calls of "Brown, Brown, Brown."

These cries for Brown came very often, and the governor waited until they were in part abated, each time, before continuing. Each time he stated the interruption did not bother him, but he hated to have the time of his audience consumed.

He urged the Smith men not to hiss, but to help restore quiet by remaining quiet.

As the evening progressed the importuned the "Brown men," if they were "gentlemen," to remain quiet so as not to disturb the others who wanted to listen, and finally concluded these petitions by stating a donkey could make more fuss than any of them. He jumped the Georgia Railway and Electric Company again, and said that as long as he was governor, for the next three years, H. M. Atkinson and his moneyed associates would have no more influence at the governor's office than the humblest widow who paid taxes in the state.

Western and Atlantic Card.

He took up the "Western and Atlantic card," and declared if it were not written by some "sharp corporation attorney" he missed his earmarks for their rhetoric.

It was a typical stump speech, the argument being along the usual lines. The meeting was dismissed without the audience being polled.

When the governor entered the building Wedemeyer's band played "Dixie," and the audience cheered lustily. The governor was introduced by Councilman Tom Winn.

Mr. Smith began his speech by saying his first political position was a committeeman's place from the Fifth ward, and his first law practice from Cook's district.

He said he was especially glad to meet the anti-Hoke Smith men, and referred to them, "all are my fellow citizens." He began by saying he wished to disabuse their minds of certain statements made against him. He referre to the vote he got two years ago in this district, and said it would be repeated. He said he wanted to review the work of his administration, which he did, along the usual lines. He traced the growth of the panic in New York, and stated he had not attacked corporations except to make them pay more taxes where they should. He referred to the increase in the taxes of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company, and declared this corporation had made millions out of it. He asked his audience whether he was to have this company to hand out his buttons to their men and tell them to wear them, or was he to make them pay their taxes just as everyone else did.

He then stated that H. M. Atkinson and his associates would have no more influence at his office than the humblest widow who paid her small taxes in Georgia.

Then Talked of Brown.

He then turned to Mr. Brown in his speech, and said:

"They say 'Brown and bread;' they mean 'Brown and beer,' and B has another meaning—'Brown and black.'"

This brought forth prolonged calls of "Brown, Brown, Brown, Brown, from the audience.

He was interrupted with the question: "How 'bout immigration?" to which he replied, "I'll answer all questions when I have finished." The cheering for Brown continued and he said: "I know you are all gentlemen, and will give fair play." He was interrupted again and said: "Now, gentlemen, you'd better let me talk; I'll divide time."

Some one in the audience suggested the Brown men be taken out, and the governor said: "I don't want any Brown men taken out." He took up the thread of his speech again, and continued with the panic in New York.

He turned his attention next to the subject of organized labor and said he had always been its friend; he told of the order of the commission on the subject of general wage reductions, and gave that order credit for stopping a cut in the Western and Atlantic shops.

With this he turned to the Western and Atlantic card and said: "That is a very bright article being printed over the signature of two very bright men. If they wrote it they ought to go to writing; if it was not written by some sharp corporation lawyer, I can't locate the earmarks of rhetoric."

"It's all true, though," said a voice in the audience.

"Not a word of it," thundered back the governor.

He said in his fight for organized labor he had helped do away with the "death warrant" act of the state road which made employees sign away all claims for liability. He said if Mr. Brown were present he'd ask him if he were not responsible for the "death warrant" clause.

Not Without a Fight.

He denied his speeches before his election started the panic. He said the fight for the people was practically won, and paid a high tribute to Roosevelt, LaFollette, Taft, Hughes and others whom he termed reformers.

He said this was the first time in the history of the state since 1877 a governor had been refused a second term in office. "But you'll get it, governor," some one shouted; "but not without a fight," he concluded.

He then said he had been advised that he would be treated to a "rough house," and had been advised not to come; but that he was not afraid, and wanted to thank all for the attention accorded. He reviewed his prohibition record. He said Mr. Brown had said "everything" on this subject. A train passed, and he said: "All the engines on this road couldn't pull Brown out there to make a speech. Remember, I'm not saying anything in regard to his personal looks. He may be very pretty. I don't know. I'm talking of his mental capacity or incapacity."

He reviewed Mr. Brown's cards on the prohibition question, at length. Again he was asked: "How 'bout immigration agent?" and here he explained he knew nothing of the pass order until it was published, and said he would not have it a week from tonight.

Here he reviewed the anti-pass order. He turned to the subject of the old soldiers, and said: "When they said the administration was hostile to old soldiers, they knew they lied." He turned his attention to the quarterly pension law and told the reasons he had for favoring this method of payment. He declared Richard H. Edmonds was the foe to child labor laws, and attributed in part the enactment of the child labor law to his campaign speeches of the same year.

Confident of Winning.

Some one said he wanted to bet on Mr. Smith, but he said: "Don't bet, but don't ever bet I won't be elected. I've just returned from south Georgia, and I'll carry the second and third districts by 5,000 more than two years ago."

He then explained his position on immigration, stating he went abroad partly to rest before going into office, and to study the immigration subject; that he never favored indiscriminate immigration; never advocated an appropriation for immigration, and this was all. Following this question, some one called out: "How 'bout your lobbying?" and he said he had invited legislators to his home and office to get them to vote right, and would do it again.

He said he was going to "lobby" for an employers' "liability act," if they wanted to call it lobbying. He said they'd find "no dummy there." "Who tends to Judge Hines' duties with the commission while he's out speaking for you?" he was asked. "He does both. It was never expected that the job would take all of his time, as he practices law besides."

"How long can the governor's chair be vacant?" some one else asked. "It can't be, and isn't now."

This brought forth a cheer for Mr. Smith.

"I want to tell you, fair or unfair, you can't find a governor who has worked harder than I have for the past nine months; if you can, trot him out."

"You're a wonder," came back from the audience.

Talked of Disfranchisement.

The governor then took up the question of disfranchisement, and discussed it at length. He referred to the Marietta republican meeting in which Mr. Brown was indorsed, "according to press dispatches," and where the negroes were urged to attend the primary polls and ask their white friends to vote for Joe Brown.

He asked the audience if they wanted negroes telling them how to vote, and they thundered back a "N—o—o."

Asked if it was from The Journal, he replied: "It is in The Georgian, too, that don't print anything except to hurt me."

This was followed by calls of "Brown, Brown, Brown."

The governor said those who were disturbing the meeting should have less noise and more brains, and declared he wouldn't say a word to hurt their feelings, but was trying to reach those going astray. He said some were "so tied they couldn't help it." He concluded the simile by saying he hadn't the sort of "knife" needed to untie them, and wouldn't use it if he had.

He told them they belong with him unless tied.

More calls of "Brown, Brown Brown" brought forth the statement he (Brown) won't come, so these men came to holler for him.

More Brown calls caused him to say: "I want to urge you, if you are gentlemen, not to disturb the others.

It was when more calls of "Brown" were heard that he said a donkey could make more fuss than any of them.

Some asked: "How 'bout the Piedmont Bar?" to which he replied: "I'm glad it's closed, so you can't get any drunker."

This brought forth a laugh and a round of applause.

About Joe Brown Dismissal.

Some one asked him about the Joe Brown dismissal, and he told of the "personal and private" letter he received, and declared it to be in the nature of a bribe for him not to dismiss Brown from office.

He was asked: "How about the port rate?" and he explained this briefly. Following this questions came thick and fast.

"Why didn't you treat 'Little Joe' with silent contempt as you said?"

"I didn't say it," thundered the governor.

"The Journal did."

"It didn't. If it had been only 'Joe' nobody would have heard of him, but the Louisville and Nashville is back of him. Sam Dunlap, the immigration agent, made a speech for him in Gainesville recently."

"Tell us about Tom Watson," he was asked.

"Don't see that has anything to do with this discussion; it is irrevelant."

He was asked about his building on the corner of Auburn avenue and Pryor street built by negroes. He said he bought the ground and paid for the building, but the contract was made by the tenant who rented it, and he knew nothing of the labor until after the contract had been let.

Favored Union Labor.

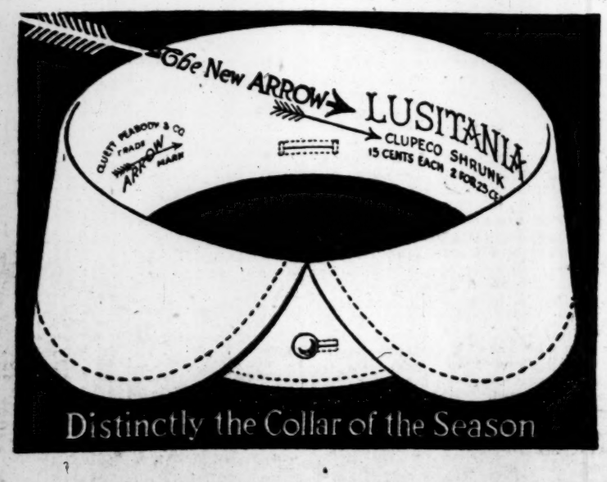

Asked if he could not have put "union labor in the contract," said he possibly could have, but never thought of it. He said he favored union labor, and got it for the most of the Piedmont hotel, in which he was interested. Said he would have gotten all of it, but the work had begun before he found out it was not union labor.

He was asked about using non-union labor on another building and he replied: "I did nothing of the sort," and explained how union labor was used. Some one yelled out this questioner was getting $100 a month from "Little Joe Brown."

The last question asked him was in regard to the painting on the mansion: "You had your picture taken with the union painters on Labor day, and three weeks later the mansion was being painted by non-union painters."

"Well, sir," said the governor, "that is the first I ever heard of that. I never knew it before."

After thanking his audience for their attendance and attention, he asked if there were any more questions, the band played "Dixie," and the meeting was adjourned. The governor stepped from the platform and was kept busy shaking hands for some time.

CAPT. RAY KNIGHT IS DEAD.

Body Will Be Sent Today to Decatur, Ala., for Funeral and Interment.

Captain Ray Knight, commercial agent for the New Orleans and Northwestern railroad, died suddenly yesterday morning at his residence, 164 Ivy street. The body will be sent this afternoon to Decatur, Ala., for funeral and interment.

Captain Knight was 66 years of age, and a native of Illinois. He fought in the union army, and at the close of the war, removed to Dalton, where he married Miss Fannie Harben. Since that time he has held several positions of trust with a number of railroads, and in each position made a competent and trusted official.

Surviving Captain Knight are his wife, a sister, Mrs. A. W. Walton, of Memphis; two daughters, Mrs. Daniel, of Nashville, and Mrs. Youston, of England, and four sons, John and Fred Knight, of Decatur, Ala., Ogden Knight, of Memphis, and Ray Knight, of San Francisco.

Stetson in Bankruptcy.

Boston, May 1.—William A. Stetson, one of the best known leather dealers in the United States, was petitioned into bankruptcy by his creditors in the United States district court here today. Included with Mr. Stetson in the proceedings were the three companies in which he had the controlling interest, namely the Ford Morocco Company, of Wilmington, Del., of which he was president; the Boston Chrome Leather Company, of which he was secretary; the William A. Stetson Company, of Boston, of which he was the head. According to Joseph W. Lund, attorney for the creditors, the liabilities of Mr. Stetson and his three companies are approximately $3,000,000, of which $1,000,000 is secured. The assets are estimated at $1,500,000.

Sir Robert Hart Leaves.

Shanghai, May 1.—Sir Robert Hart, chief of the maritime customs service of China, left here today for Europe on a year's leave of absence. He has received the highest honors from the Chinese government, and was given a hearty send-off today by the foreign, as well as the prominent Chinese residents of Shanghai.

Governor Smith," asked Dr. Cartledge, "and Mr. Brown should win, where would be then be?"

"Watch the Line-Up."

Dr. W. W. Landrum favored the resolution. He read, for the information of those present, a communication sent to him by a prominent prohibitionist in which it was declared that the fight of the Anti-Saloon League had only commenced, and that with the county unit rule eliminated, three years from now a local option governor would be elected when the big counties would outvote forty smaller counties where the prohibition strength lies. He also read another communication which used "Watch the line-up" for a text, and told of prominent Hoke Smith supporters who were closely allied with the liquor interests, and who had taken a prominent part in the fight on the prohibition bill.

When a vote was finally taken it was unanimous to refer the resolution to the trustees.

The trustees, it is said, will be called together as soon as possible to act on the resolution.

It was stated at the meeting that if a candidate was indorsed, the president of the league, Dr. T. D. Ellis, one of the most prominent preachers and prohibitionists in the state, would resign.

ELMER GREEN CAPTURES BUCK-D ANCING HONORS

Elmer Green is now champion buck dancer of the state of Georgia, for he won it before several thousand people gathered at the Orpheum last night to witness the greatest contest of the kind ever pulled off in this city.

Jessie Reynolds, the other contestant, won first prize in the amateur event. Both of these artists did some exceedingly fine work.

In the real amateur contest, Roy Swift, a buck dancer, took second money, and Harry Grizzard, comedian, third. The other acts were: Harry Walton, buck dancer; Will Reynolds, dancer; Fitzgibbons and Francis, acrobats; Harry Hughes, acrobat.

Two specialties were rendered by the Orpheum company. The first was a burlesque on "Dora Thorne" by the Campbell and Franci troupe. The next was a travesty on the "Bandit" by several of the male members.

MORTUARY

Mrs. George T. Webster.

Mrs. George T. Webster, aged 34 years, of 238 Central avenue, died last night at a private sanitarium. The body was removed to Greenberg, Bond & Bloomfield's undertaking establishment, where it is being held until funeral arrangements can be made.

Mrs. Annie Edy.

Mrs. Annie Edy, aged 67 years, died Thursday night at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Hunsbaugh, 22 Rosalie street. The body was sent to Columbia, Tenn., last night for interment. The deceased is survived by a daughter and two sons.

Miss Alice H. Harper.

The funeral services of Miss Alice H. Harper, aged 64 years, who died suddenly Thursday morning, will be held this morning at 10 o'clock at St. Philip's cathedral. The body will be sent to Marlboro, Md., for interment. The deceased is survived by a sister and a brother.

Short Stories of Local Field.

FRANK C. WALTER, OF ATLANTA, AN architect, yesterday filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy with the clerk of the United States court. The schedule indicated liabilities amounting to $2,938, while the assets were shown to be $1,000.

A VOLUNTARY PETITION IN BANKruptcy was placed with the clerk of the United States court yesterday by J. D. McMillan, of Atlanta. The petitioner says he is a hotel keeper and places his liabilities at $1,834.20, with his assets at $1,100.

RACE NOW ON IN EARNEST; ENTRY LIST HAS CLOSED

Last night at midnight the entry list for candidates for state house and general offices was closed and those who had failed to pay the required fee of $50 to cover the expenses of the primary of June 4 will not be able to get their names upon the primary ballot.

The rule as promulgated at the first meeting of the state democratic executive committee on this subject is as follows:

"14. Each candidate for governor, United States senator, state house office, supreme court judges and appellate court judges shall be assessed $50 to meet the expense of said democratic primaries herein provided for, which sum shall cover all assessments against such candidates for any other primaries and the name of no candidate shall appear on the official ballot who fails to pay this assessment on or before May 1, 1908."

With this formality aside the race is now to a finish.

The entries are all up, the barrier swung up and it is truly said of the gubernatorial handicap, the homestretch is at hand.

There is now no possibility of a "dark horse" entering for governor," United States senator or any other state house office. The entry list for prison commissioner, for which, at first there were seven candidates, and for railroad commissioner is now closed.

Only those paid up before midnight will find their names on the official ballot to be prepared by Chairman Miller and issued for use on June 4.

Candidates Who Have Paid.

Macon, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—The following candidates for nomination to offices to be made in the state primary of June 4, have qualified by paying their assessments to Charles H. Hall, secretary of the state committee, the time for getting in the mail expiring today:

For United States senator, A. S. Clay.
For governor, Hoke Smith.
For governor, Joseph M. Brown.
For secretary of state, Philip Cook.
For treasurer, Robert E. Park.
For treasurer, W. J. Speer.
For attorney general, John C. Hart.
For comptroller, William A. Wright.
For commissioner of agriculture, T. G. Hudson.
For school commissioner, Jere M. Pound.
For judge supreme court, H. M. Holden.
For judge of supreme court, B. D. Evans.
For judge court of appeals, Richard B. Russell.
For railroad commissioner, R. H. Buchanan.
For railroad commissioner, George Hillyer.
For railroad commissioner, W. D. Branan.
For railroad commissioner, Fuller E. Callaway.
For railroad commissioner, H. Warner Hill.
For prison commissioner, R. E. Davidson.
For prison commissioner, Wiley Williams.
For prison commissioner, Jesse E. Mercer.
For prison commissioner, R. H. Milledge.
For prison commissioner, K. R. Foster.

GOVERNOR HOKE SMITH SPENDS DAY AT CAPITOL

Governor Smith spent the major portion of yesterday in his office at the state capitol.

He returned from a campaign trip in south Georgia in the morning to speak in Atlanta at night.

He visited his office early in the morning and received a number of callers throughout the day.

It is expected the governor will be in his office during the day, too.

In the morning the governor received Railroad Commissioner George Hillyer and Judge J. K. Hines, attorney for the railroad commission. Later on during the day he received Commissioner of Agriculture T. G. Hudson and spent some time with him.

The governor stated to several callers he was entirely satisfied with the result of his campaign in south Georgia.

Chairman J. D. Kilpatrick, in charge of booking the governor for campaign speeches, announces the governor's engagements to speak during the coming week.

At Brown Headquarters.

At the headquarters of Hon. Joseph M. Brown, in the New Kimball, Mr. Brown was kept busy throughout the day receiving personal delegations from the various Joe Brown clubs in the state, reporting to him as to the conditions in their respective counties.

Mr. Brown stated he had never felt better and the outlook is all that he could ask or his friends could desire.

Campaign Manager Smith said: "We are getting a bigger mail today than we did a week ago, and the reports indicate, clearly, the work of the Joe Brown clubs is having a telling effect. Organized working clubs throughout Georgia are getting the situation well in hand and today we are ready for the fourth of June.

"The Fulton County Joe Brown Club, the banner club of the state, is growing larger daily, and it is unquestionably the largest county club ever organized for a candidate."

May Declare Martial Law.

Columbus, Ohio, May 1.—The state authorities are considering the plan of declaring martial law in the burley tobacco district of Ohio in order to protect the people from the night riders who make frequent dashes from Kentucky.

Heart Troubles

The heart may be weak just the same as the eyes, stomach or other organs. It often happens that a person is born with a weak heart. Then again disease, fevers, over-exertion, anxiety, nervousness, rheumatism, etc. weaken the heart. The result is shortness of breath, palpitation, pain in the heart, or in some of the nerves of the chest or abdomen. The heart should be strengthened with a tonic, and for this nothing equals Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"I had LaGrippe last fall as I thought in a mild form. I was weak, tired feeling, and short of breath; could hardly go about, and a good deal of the time sort of an asthmatic breathing and extremely nervous. I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine and now I feel so much better in every way. I am so thankful that I began taking this medicine, and shall not hesitate to tell others how much good it has done me."

SHORT MILEAGE OVER TWO ROADS

Trip to New Orleans Will Cost Less in Future.

It is announced by the Louisville and Nashville railroad and the Atlanta and West Point railroad, beginning on May 13, these roads will begin the practice of "pulling" a shorter mileage between Atlanta and New Orleans, in order to compete with the 2-cent rate of the Southern.

The flat fare for the trip to New Orleans is now $13.95. Under the Southern 2-cent book the number of miles traveled is 515, and the cost, therefore, is $10.30.

The Louisville and Nashville and the West Point line charges 2 1-2 cents a mile by its mileage book, and to offset it will pull only 416 miles at 2 1-2 cents to equalize matters.

Hunt Begins His Work.

Assistant General Passenger Agent Meeks, of the Southern railway, appointed to succeed R. W. Hunt, made superintendent of collectors for this system, arrived in Atlanta yesterday, to take charge of his new duties, coming in during the morning from Knoxville.

Superintendent Hunt started a few of the collectors out on the Southern trains during the day; will send more out today, and gradually increase the number from time to time.

THREE NEGROES HANGED.

Two Hung at Lexington and One at Darlington, S. C.

Columbia, S. C., May 1.—Ned and Brack Toland, two young negroes, who murdered Mrs. Paul Ellisor, an aged white woman, at Cayce, Lexington county, two months ago, were hanged at the Lexington jail at noon today.

The murder of Mrs. Ellisor was a most brutal one, the young Toland boy holding her while the elder brained her with an ax. The boys afterwards robbed the house of various articles of clothing.

Some pressure was brought to bear upon Governor Ansel to reprieve Brack Toland, because of his tender years, being only 17 years old, but he declined to interfere with the court's decree.

Gaddy Graham, colored, aged about 35 years, was hanged at Darlington today for the murder of Furman Moody, a white man, the manager of a plantation in Darlington county, on November 18, 1907. Graham was caught in the act of stealing corn, and when hailed by Moody, the former fired with fatal results.

MAY MOVING

Purify Your Premises. Disinfection Most Important.

Disinfect as well as clean the house or apartment you move into. The former occupants may have left the germs of some disease. Purify every suspicious spot with Platt's Chlorides. Places where disease germs may develop, nooks behind plumbing and all spots that can't be reached by the scrubbing brush should be freely sprinkled with a mixture of one (1) part of Platt's Chlorides, and ten (10) parts of water. This dilution costs less than 5 cents a quart. Do not neglect a liberal sprinkling of the cellar. To remove objectionable odors where sprinkling is inadvisable, keep a cloth or sponge moistened with the dilution mentioned. A little extra care just now may prevent much sickness and expense. Platt's Chlorides is an odorless, colorless liquid disinfectant which instantly destroys foul odors and disease-breeding matter. It is sold by druggists everywhere in full quart bottles, and is prepared only by Henry B. Platt.

SENATOR W. H. BURWELL,
Twentieth Senatorial District.

HON. R. H. LEWIS.

EXPERIENCED LEGISLATORS WILL REPRESENT HANCOCK

Sparta, Ga., April 30.—(Special.)—Hancock sends to the next general assembly her two most experienced legislators. Hon. W. H. Burwell goes to the senate unopposed. Mr. Burwell was born in Baltimore of Virginia parentage, but moved to Sparta in his childhood. He was admitted to the bar in 1893, was elected to the legislature in 1894, where he served for four years consecutively, and was elected again in 1907 for last year and this. He will be a candidate for the presidency of the state senate. It is believed he has other still higher political aspirations two years from now.

Hon. R. H. Lewis won a decisive victory in his race for the house as another move in his varied political career. He graduated from Emory college with honors, was admitted to the bar, was ordinary of Hancock county for eight years, from 1881; was representative in the legislature for four years, from 1888; was solicitor general for the northern circuit for four years, from 1897. At one time he was also editor of The Sparta Ishmaelite, and has been mayor of our town for several terms. Mr. Lewis enjoys the unique distinction of never having been defeated in a county election. This fact, together with the additional prestige which his recent victory has given him prompts some of his friends to declare that two years hence they will insist on his making the race for congress.

GRIFFIN WILL GET AID OF RED CROSS SOCIETY

The Red Cross Society, probably the most famous aid to the army in the world, and noted throughout civilization for its acts of charity in relieving sickness, pain, destitution and suffering of all kind, will come to the aid of the storm sufferers at Griffin.

Word to this effect was received at the headquarters of the department of the gulf in the Candler building yesterday from Washington. The message was to the effect the Red Cross Society would furnish the money to relieve the storm sufferers' distress at Griffin, provided the department would furnish an officer to disburse these funds.

Immediately Brigadier General Ramsay D. Potts, through Adjutant General Robinson, called for Lieutenant Osterman, of the Seventeenth infantry, to go to Griffin for this duty.

He is at present at Waco with his company in attendance upon target practice there. He has been recalled for this duty and will go to Griffin during the day.

Field Hospital Promised.

Late in the afternoon the commanding officer of the department of the gulf received a telegram from the war department at Washington in which it was stated the surgeon general was prepared to furnish, upon twenty-four hours' notice, surgeons, officers and privates from the hospital staff and a corps of trained nurses to attend the cyclone sufferers in Georgia and throughout the territory of the department of the gulf. This means Uncle Sam will equip and establish a field hospital wherever necessary, fully equipped for duty.

So far no requests for medical aid in Georgia have been received by the officers of the department.

Captain Charles C. Clark, chief of the commissary department, who recently went upon a tour of inspection, reported the loss at $100,000 and stated there was much need of assistance there, especially in the way of sustenance.

Inspector General Woodward, of the department of the gulf, detailed to investigate the needs of the Georgia cities' reports as follows:

Cave Spring—Urgently need twenty blankets, 400 rations.

Stinson requires 600 rations, 30 cots, 30 blankets.

Harris requires 1,000 rations, 20 cots, 20 blankets.

Chipley urgently needs 150 cots, 150 blankets, 150 shirts, 150 rations for thirty days (4,500).

Major Townsley, commanding Fort Barrancas, Fla., reported Friday that he had shipped to New Orleans 160 tents which will accommodate nearly 2,000 persons.

Colonel H. E. Robinson, of the department, has ordered 350 more tents to take the place of those sent the sufferers.

Quartermaster W. G. Obear, of the national guard of Georgia, in the afternoon shipped several hundred rations to the storm sufferers at Stinson. In a report received by him five families with sixteen people, and sixteen colored families, with sixty-three people, were practically destitute.

Food and clothing may be sent direct to Stinson to J. M. Mullin or R. L. Mitchell. The following cash contributions were received by General Obear Friday morning: From F. G. Glenn, Carlton, $16.15; H. J. Lamar, Macon; $20; city council of Ashburn, $25; Ponders avenue church, Atlanta, $3.50.

YOUNG DOCTORS GET DIPLOMAS

Thirty-Two Graduate at Medical Department of University at Augusta.

Augusta, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—Augusta people turned out to attend the commencement of the medical department of the University of Georgia tonight at the Grand opera house as they had never before done in the history of the institution. The fact that people here believe there is imminent danger of losing the college, the presence at the exercises of Chancellor Barrow, and the winning of the three first honors by Augusta boys, all contributed to make the event of unusual importance in the eyes of the local public. Seventy-five or one hundred out-of-town visitors, friends and relatives of the graduating physicians also attended the commencement.

The opening invocation was delivered by Rev. G. Sherwood Whitney, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, and was followed by Chancellor Barrow's address. The salutatory was delivered by Dr. L. V. Strickland, and the valedictory by Dr. Charles Usher. Dr. Richard Wilkinson, a distinguished local pulpit orator, also spoke. The program was delightfully interspersed by musical numbers rendered by a special orchestra.

High Price for Token.

London, May 1.—A $10 token, issued by the Cincinnati Mining Company, in 1849, was sold at auction today, and purchased for America for $2,175. There is only one other similar token extant.

Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts

of Lemon, Vanilla, etc., are superior in every respect.

MOTORMAN HURT IN A COLLISION

Two Cars Strike in Front of the Equitable Building.

At 8:30 o'clock last night a collision took place between two cars of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company in front of the Equitable building, resulting in the fronts of both cars being badly smashed and Motorman L. H. Boling being painfully bruised.

Extra car No. 184 was coming up from the barn to relieve another car and ran into car No. 93 of the Copenhill line. Quite a crowd congregated and there was considerable excitement for a time. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Burglars Visit Sparks.

Sparks, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—This town was heavy hit Wednesday night by burglars, there being five robberies, as follows: McKinney Bros.' store, with loss estimated at $100 in clothing and shoes; the B. A. Rowland Company, $100 in shoes, clothing and gents' furnishings; W. J. Taylor's barber shop, loss small; the postoffice, with loss of only a few cents left in money drawer; residence of C. E. Adair on Colquitt street, loss of pair pants, pistol and watch belonging to C. W. Hall, a boarder.

Receipt That Cures Weak Men--Free

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So, I have determined to send a copy of the prescription, free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope, to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men, and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor-failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence, so that any man, anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what, I believe, is the quickest-acting, restorative, upbuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so, cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Mr. A. E. Robinson, 3862 Luck Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid receipt, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope, free of charge.

SPORTS | CRACKERS ALMOST BEATEN; WON IN 10th | Edited by Alex Lynn

GREAT FINISH WON FOR LOCALS

Crackers Produced Three Runs in Round Ten.

They Began the Inning With the Score 5 to 3 Against Them, but Valiant Hitting Turned the Trick—Such Is Baseball.

WHERE THEY PLAY TODAY.

Birmingham in Atlanta, Ponce de Leon park. Game called at 3:30 o'clock.
Nashville in Montgomery.
Memphis in New Orleans.
Little Rock in Mobile.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

Atlanta 6, Birmingham 5, ten innings.
Memphis 2, New Orleans 0.
Nashville 5, Montgomery 0.
Little Rock 5, Mobile 0.

While the Crackers have become noted for seizing the last opportunity that presents itself and acting in a polite manner with it, they pulled off their greatest round finish yesterday afternoon when they got away with the Barons, 6 to 5.

It took ten innings for this game. The home brigade went into the tenth when the score was 5 to 3 against them. It was 3 to 3 at the end of the ninth, and a local blow-up, consisting of some few errors and a brace of hits on the part of the enemy, gave the Barons two runs, thus apparently cinching the game for them.

The crowd had commenced to file out in large-sized droves. Bill Smith had donned his "submit to the inevitable" look, and it was a horror-stricken sea of faces that gazed on the scene when the locals began their half of the ninth.

Moran's hit didn't cheer them up much, but it was a game gathering, and even in the face of such frightful odds they removed a few cheering words.

The round ended with everybody joyous save the Barons, who received a genuine hard-luck beating.

Moran swiped second and Winters beat a poke to first base. Then the reliable J. Becker pulled off a double that counted Moran, and the Barons were but one to the good.

Winters had gone to third and Bill Dyer got a sacrifice fly-out to center that put Ginger over and Becker to third.

The gathering and Bill Smith began to buck up. The game was sewed up once more.

Jordan Broke It Up.

Then Ot Jordan came to the plate and worked a pair of evil eyes on Robertaille. It was a hot bingle through Downey, and scored Becker with the winning run. Everybody shouted some before leaving the scene of such a fierce conflict.

Consider what the valiant, working-in-a-pinch Crackers had done: produced a quartet of hits and three runs. That was a finish, the like of which hasn't been seen in an age.

But the Crackers had the contest cinched once before, so many thought. Half of their runs came in the third, and at the time there wasn't a thing for the Barons.

A total of six hits, some of them scratches, off Mister Robertaille did that much. Hurlburt, who caught his first game on the local lot, received some applause when he came to bat and responded with a single. Castro got away with one through pitcher, and Viebahn did the same thing, filling the sacks. Moran grounded to third and Big Ed was out at the rubber. Winters singled Castro in, and Becker did the same thing for Viebahn. Dyer singled to center and Molesworth threw Winters out at the plate, Ginger trying to make the distance from second. Jordan punched one to Robertaille and Becker was out at the plate, all three put-outs being credited to the catcher. That was right good business.

This lead was maintained until the fifth, when the Barons got two. Molesworth singled and was forced at second on Houtz's effort. Lefty was there by the fielder's choice and Bill Douglass murdered one for three bases, counting Houtz. Raub's sigle brought in the other.

Sewed in Eighth.

In the eighth the Barons sewed it up. Viebahn walked Raub, but the catcher was snuffed at second when Downey got a near hit through the pitcher, the ball glancing off Viebahn's left paw and falling into Castro's ready grasp. Downey swiped both second and third. Demont walked and Reagan proved a pinch hitter, his single scoring Downey. Demont made a desperate effort to get another run by making a stab at swiping the plate, but was an easy out, this being the third one.

The tenth sank our hopes that were soon to rise again. Viebahn got the first one, Douglass, to the infield. Raub beat a bunt down the third-base line, and Downey hit a single to left that scored him after he had advanced all the way to third when Viebahn heaved wild to first in an endeavor to catch him off.

Then came the big blow-up. Moran let the ball escape between his legs, and it went traveling far from the old folks at home. Then he recovered it and threw to Castro. Downey was digging all the while, and the Count was after him, but heaved to the grandstand, and there was run two. Demont was safe on Dyer's error, but Reagan flied and Walters fouled out.

Memphis 2, New Orleans 0.

New Orleans, May 1.—Memphis outplayed the locals today and were easily the winner. Fritz's base on balls, followed by two hits, gave the visitors a run in the third. They made another in the sixth on Babb's double and Cranston's single. Outfielder Delehanty refused today to play because Manager Frank would not pay Delehanty's hotel bill in addition to the money allowed during the training season. Frank suspended Delehanty. Score:

ONE LONE RUN DECIDED GAME

Auburn Sent Runner Over the Plate in Ninth Inning.

Play of Tech and Auburn Was on Par—Some Beautiful Work by the Visitors—Two Teams Will Meet on Diamond Again Today.

Tech and Auburn met yesterday afternoon at Tech park in one of the prettiest games of the season, the latter team winning in the ninth inning by pushig across the only run of the game. For eight long rounds all efforts by both aggregations were futile, for both pitchers were moving fast and the ambitious sluggers, with very few exceptions, were speedily sent back to warm the bench.

Auburn's lone tally came with the near-close of the game and the falling of the twilight shadows. McCoy strolled up to the plate in the ninth with a wicked looking cudgel, and beat out an infield hit. He went to second on a sacrifice, and came scampering home on Edwards' drive to right. The latter was out at the plate in an attempt to take an extra base on an error.

The teams played almost even, although Auburn outfielded Tech. The Orange and Blue also excelled somewhat at the bat, but two of her hits were scratches. The Yellowjacket infield pulled off some slow work several times, probably due to an off day.

The game brought out a number of features. Robert and Reynolds twirled above the average, judging by hits, for strike-outs were few. Ware and McCoy, of the Auburn team, pulled off a snappy double play in the first inning. Webb, of Auburn, won immortal fame in the eighth when he went down with one paw and dug up Hightower's hard drive to center. Pease had a number of hard chances around second, and accepted the most of them with characteristic ease.

The same aggregations get together again this afternoon at 3:30 and another close game, with perhaps a turn of tide as to the victor, is expected. Those who turn out are assured of an afternoon of rare sport, for Auburn will fight hard for a clean sweep, and Tech will put forth every effort to make it an even break.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Both the leaders suffered defeat yesterday, and Atlanta's great victory over Birmingham shoveyd the Crackers into the place they occupied when the curtain went down last season. Here's hoping.

Maybe the bases didn't have some baby elephants on them when both Viebahn and Ed Hurlburt, the hefty battery of yesterday, were on the way in the third round. Ed was caught, but Bill tallied. The catcher was snuffed on a brilliant piece of work pulled off by one Downey, who is a corking third baseman. Moran should have had another hit on the shot that the Baron got, and he would hae if Downey hadn't climbed into the air and pulled down the ball that had taken a swift bound over his head. He threw to the plate before he landed, and Ed was caught by a whisker.

There were errors enough to go around, but the weather can be taken as an excuse. It was cool enough to frost a brass monkey, and it didn't have good effect on the players' hands and throwing arms.

Nashville has asked for waivers on our old college chum, Whitey Morse. Bernhard talked about letting Morse out when Nashville was here, but no official report was received until yesterday.

Charley Frank's troubles with his big leaguers haven't ended. Delehanty wouldn't play yesterday because Charles refused to be held up for pay during the training season, when the outfielder was absent, and a whole bale of board bills.

A new inclemency hit the game yesterday when snow prevented the Indianapolis-Minneapolis bout in the American Association.

G. Winters has embarked on the best season he has seen in some time. George is hitting in his old-time form, and there is no faster in the outfield. Otto Jordan promises to hit better this campaign, and from the manner in which Becker has been acting, it is judged that he will finish away up.

When Lou Castro connects with the ball squarely it is all off. His double in the ninth would have been good for four had not Molesworth and Houtz gotten away with some pretty field play.

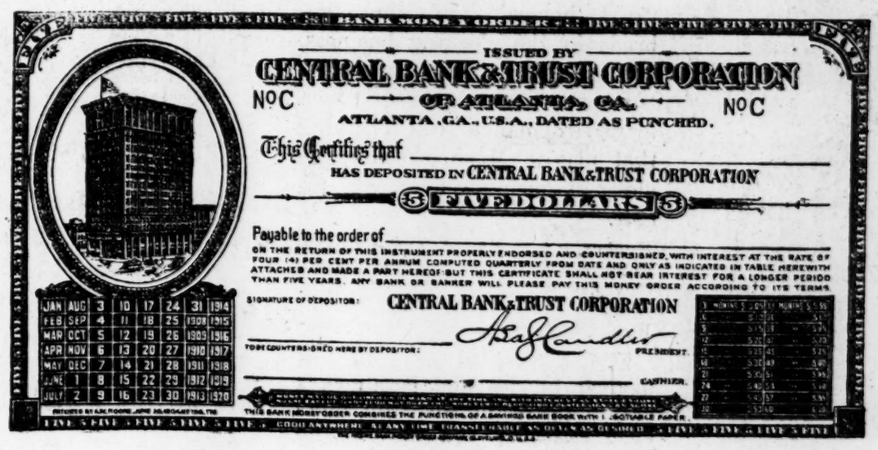

Thirteen is an unlucky number, but we can overlook that when as many hits pulled in the contest. Thirteen every day wouldn't come amiss if they figured in such brilliant finishes.

Ty Cobb hit some yesterday. He drove Smith, of Chicago, out of the box with a triple and double that scored all the Tiger runs. Silk O'Loughlin saevd the Sox from further slaughter by putting Cobb out for kicking.

A New Banking Instrument

Bears 4 Per Cent Interest Computed Quarterly from Date of Issue

Self-Identifying. Payable on Demand. Negotiable

Issued in Any Denomination and for Any Amount

This new banking instrument is an up-to-date and highly practical and advantageous addition to the progressive methods employed by this bank's Savings Department.

By this modern plan, beautiful engraved certificates are issued for any amount from $1 up. The certificates, in addition to being negotiable and bearing 4 per cent interest, computed every three months, also possess the unusual advantages of being self-identifying and payable on demand, not only at this bank, but at banks generally throughout the country.

Thus by the use of these certificates you can deposit your savings and surplus funds in this bank at 4 per cent interest, computed quarterly, and yet have it practically in your own possession in such form as to be available anywhere at any time.

MORAN MAKES GOOD SHOWING; TWO PITCHERS ARE DUMPED

Bill Smith has at last cut down his pitching staff, the pruning sending Walsh to the Austin club of the Texas league and Cummings probably to Charleston of the Sally, although Smith has not quite decided about the latter case. That sends the ex-Montgomery slabman down a peg. He did not stack up very well with the rest of the hurlers on hand, and it was a case of have to. Cummings has something and another season in a lesser light will about put him ripe for the class A article.

No other cuts will be made until near the limit, which is the fifteenth of May. The full squad will be taken on the coming trip and Smith will get within the limit while away from home.

Several days ago he offered to loan Moran to Nashville, but nothing was heard from Bernhard, and now the fast little outpost will go with the bunch on the road. The Augusta Sally club has put in a bid for Moran, but it is not probable that it will do business. He is good enough for the Southern, and if Atlanta cuts him loose it's certain that some of the other clubs will refuse to waive. Mique Finn hasn't but fourteen men, and would probably take on another good one if he got the chance.

Moran made his debut in yesterday's game, and played good ball despite the error charged against him. He got two hits, one of them a scratch, but still a safety, and another a clean one to center, the beginning of the rally in the tenth. He is a graceful fielder, and has excellent baseball form. His showing was most promising and his performance showed him to be a better man than Joey Collins, now with Little Rock.

The local manager gives out nothing anent his catching department, not having decided on the two that will be retained. He thinks warmer weather, which is overdue, will help him in finding out the ability of the staff.

Augusta, Ga., May 1.—Augusta took the second of the series from Savannah today in a hotly contested game. A pitchers' battle between Kieber and Richardson was fought, the latter having decidedly the better of it. The hitting of Dexter and the fielding of Bierman for the home team were features aside from the box work of both slabmen. Score:

TELEGRAPHERS PLAY A TIE WITH CONSTITUTION TEAM

Going Was Fast for Eleven Innings, and Then the Shades of Night Put an End to Play.

Of course Atlanta beat Birmingham yesterday, and Auburn put a crimp in the Yellow Jackets, but these games were trifles compared with the struggle between the Telegraphers and The Constitution team, which ended with the coming of night, with eleven innings gone, and the score a tie, 2 to 2.

The going was mighty even all the way. Sometimes it looked like the typos would be sure to cop the scrap, and the next inning the printers were all to the bad, and the telegraphers were the winners certain.

It was a meeting of Greeks, and the fur was flying all over the field. The ball was treated perfectly scandalous. Sometimes it was walloped where the fielders "ain't," and more often where the fielders "was." This was clearly proven by the fact that the hits in eleven innings totaled eight, five for the key workers, and three for the men who help to make a paper.

Umpires Behaved Nicely.

The umpires behaved very nicely. The average umps has enough trouble with players, who know often only the A. B. C.'s of abuse, but the two men who officiated at this momentous game knew what was coming to them if they did not keep their lamps skinned for every play. The typos might have gotten busy with slugs, and forms, and other instruments of trade, and the telegraphers had a command of language, acquired from daily use of copy over the wires, which would have astonished any league ruler.

The Constitution started out like a young colt. In the second inning the typos pushed a man around, and settled down to keep their lead. But the telegraghers got busy on their own account in the fourth, and one run drifted in. Then there was some wireless signals by the code, which the uninitiated could not understand, and another run came over in the sixth.

To prove that the bat was mightier than the key, however, was now the task of the typos, and they evened up the score in the seventh, and despite the elaborate signal apparatus of the operators, held their own until the shades of night came down like the wolves of old upon the battling warriors, and everybody hesitated to rest awhile.

One feature of the traveling was the home run of Wilson, of the Telegraphers.

The line-up:

Constitution: Huddleston, c; Walsh, p; Hagood, 1b; Lochridge, 2b; Sitton, 3b; Griffin, ss; Patton, rf; Brown, cf; VanRibber, lf. Telegraphers: Oliver, c; Johnson, p; Reynolds, 1b; Linton, 2b; McKinnon, 3b; Turner, ss; Ingram and Dixon, rf; Ruff, cf; Wilson, lf.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
Constitution	010 000 100 00—2	3	1
Telegraphers	000 101 000 00—2	5	4

HAS MANIA FOR SLEEPING IN SOMEBODY ELSE'S BED

There are many manias peculiar to Darktown, and one of the latest with which the police have come in contact is a craze to sleep in somebody else's bed.

For several weeks past it has been reported to the police that people living in Darktown who worked at night returned to their homes in the morning to find that somebody had been occupying their beds all night.

Time and again a Darktown citizen has said to the police, like the Three Bears said about Little Golden Hair:

"Somebody has been in my bed."

The police were for a time baffled. The mystery deepened.

Last Thursday night a woman, who works out at night in a hotel, returned to her home at 120 Edgewood avenue and found a man in her bed. It was Charley Johnson, who had been caught just like Little Golden Hair at last caught the Baby Bear. She hastened for a policeman, and Charley was soon under arrest.

When found, Charley had all his clothes on wrong side out. He was arraigned in the police court, and when asked for an explanation, he said:

"Yassah, I sho wus cot datter time, Jedge Briles. I jest obersleeped merse'f fer onct."

When asked why he had his clothes on wrong side out, he replied that he reversed his apparel to keep them clean.

Charley admitted that he was the Darktown citizen who had been occupying all the beds that had been found molested.

The police are no longer baffled. The mystery deepens no more.

For the next thirty days Charley will stop at the stockade, where he can sleep in his clothes turned any old way he wants them.

IT DIDN'T MATTER WHOSE BED IT WAS. 'TWAS ALL THE SAME TO HIM.

FINE SESSION OF EDUCATORS

Yesterday's Meeting Was Declared Most Interesting in History of Association.

Augusta, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—The state convention of educators was the important event of the day in Augusta. More than five hundred visitors are now in the city, and the best hospitality that Augusta can offer is at the command of the teachers.

Today's meetings were declared the most interesting in the history of the association, and were attended not only by the members of the association, but by scores of Augustans. The sessions began early in the morning and continued with an intermission until late at night.

Early in the proceedings the following committees were announced by President Lawton B. Evans:

Resolutions: E. A. Pound, W. T. Garrett, J. E. Boland, Miss C. S. Parrish, Miss Ella Armstrong.

Membership: D. L. Ernest, C. B. Chapman, T. G. Polhill, R. E. Park, R. H. Powell.

These committees will report tomorrow. Miss May Mahoney, of Augusta, illustrated the teaching of literature in the lower grades by a presentation of a dramatized Hiawatha by the primary school children. It was the most spectacular feature of the convention. T. J. Woofter, chairman of the committee for the betterment of the profession, made a report covering the work of the past two years.

Andrew M. Soule, of the College of Agriculture, delivered an address. Department meetings occupied this afternoon. J. S. Stewart, of Athens, had the department of colleges, and Miss S. C. Parrish that of graded schools.

The night session was at St. John's Methodist church. A class of fifty high school girls rendered splendid music. President Dupont Guerry, of Wesleyan Female college delivered an address upon "Our Girls." Miss Parrish of the State Normal school talked about the proper education of women. Professor M. M. Parks of Georgia Normal and Industrial college spoke on making the schools closer to life. The regular business session of the association takes place tomorrow at 9 o'clock in the morning.

EXPEDITIONS FOR RELIEF.

More Complete News of Suffering Caused by Storm.

Hattiesburg, Miss., May 1.—More thorough examination of the tornado-swept district between Purvis and Baxterville, revealed today the fact that the first relief committee were able only to gain an incomplete idea of the suffering caused by the storm. Relief parties, which are now going out, are having great difficulty in reaching persons who, for a week, have been practically cut off from the world. These relief expeditions, in order to make progress, are cutting their way through roads in places impassable on account of fallen timber.

Six more injured were today brought here from Baxterville. About two dozen nurses are expected here on Sunday from the north.

"NO TIP" SHOP A FAILURE.

New York Wouldn't Stand for the New Idea.

New York, May 1.—That a "no tip" barber shop will not pay in New York has been proved by the experience of a shop which after a thorough trial of the plan has given it up and gone back to the prevailing tipping system. The proprietors put $30,000 into an establishment of the first order, fixed a scale of prices calculated to save money for the patrons on the no-tip basis, and forbade the acceptance of gratuities by their employees. They ran it at a loss every month for a little over a year. New York would not have it. Now the announcement has been made that customers may tip barbers as much as they please, and as many times as they please. Since then business has picked up amazingly.

LEIGH RETIRES FROM THE RACE

Announces Withdrawal from Contest for Congress in Fourth District.

Newman, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—Hon. S. E. Leigh, who has been making an active canvass for congress in this district for the past three months, prints a card in The Herald and Adverer today announcing his withdrawal from the race. The probability of an early primary, and the continued illness of different members of his family are assigned as reasons for his withdrawal from the contest.

STARS OF CHAUTAUQUA ENTERTAIN PRISONERS

Ralph Bingham and the Chicago Glee Club, composed of Messrs. Dixon, Thomas, Turner and Henry, entertained the prisoners in the federal penitentiary for an hour or more yesterday morning in the chapel, after which Mr. Bingham and his fellow entertainers were entertained by a complete inspection of the interior of the prison.

It was Warden Moyer who presented Mr. Bingham to the convict body assembled within the chapel, and for thirty minutes Mr. Bingham made the wearers of prison uniform forget their surroundings. The glee club followed with its best selections, and then Mrs. Chilton, of Mississippi, the widely known platform talker, was presented.

In her recitation, "The Yale-Harvard Boat Race," Mrs. Chilton was especially interesting. Every feature of the entertainment was interesting to the gathering of five hundred prisoners. After the visitors had been heard they became the guests of the warden, by whom they were shown every department of the penitentiary.

PAPER HEARING CONTINUED.

McCormick, of Chicago Tribune, Before Committee.

Washington, May 1.—Testifying today before the house select committee on wood pulp and paper investigation, Medill McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune explained his several paper contracts of the last ten years, and said that although he had a five-year contract, with one year yet to run, with the International Paper Company, the price had been raised from $1.85 per hundred to $2.20.

Further evidence was submitted by John Norris, representing the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, in support of the association's claim that there is a combination or agreement in restraint of trade among the several groups of paper makers.

The hearing will be continued tomorrow.

SEVEN ARE NOW IN THE RACE.

Three of These Are Said to Be Anti-Bryan.

Montgomery, Ala., May 1.—(Special.)—Judge O. Kyle, of Decatur, today qualified as a candidate for delegate-at-large to the national democratic convention, making seven in the race. Judge Kyle, Dr. Cunningham and Senator Moody are held to be anti-Bryan. A fourth man of this following is expected.

J. B. Brown qualified today for alternate delegate-at-large and D. A. Grayson and J. A. Inzer as alternate electors-at-large.

To See the Stomach Work.

Munich, May 1.—The problem of direct observation of the interior of the human stomach during life has been solved by Dr. Riehl, according to a medical weekly. The method employed includes the passing of a double tube through the esophagus to the stomach, the inner tube being fitted with a small electric bulb. Water is passed by means of a subsidiary attachment through the outer tube, filling the stomach. The light is then turned on, permitting, the medical papers say, the closest observation of the movements of the organs. The paper regards this as an important advance, which will permit of a closer study of cancer of the stomach and other internal maladies.

FOR TWO HOURS DAVIS TALKED

his respects to the press, his remarks in that connection being as follows:

The Subsidized Press.

"Let the scavengers of plutocracy howl; but God's living truth will prevail. Where are its defenders? Miserable travesties upon noble manhood, post-graduates in all arts of slander or defamation, I challenge the subsidized press; the people know your designs, and spurn your pretense, whether under show of argument or more servient hypocrisies. Go, damnable imps of pelf and greed, I defy your taunts. Tear to fragments my political career if it comport with your execrable will. Stifle and distort my every utterance. Not satisfied, if such be your brutal frenzy, lash my poor form into insensibility.

"Then, if it be your further pleasure, gnaw from my stiffening bones every vestige of quivering flesh. Howl in wretched beastiality, though my own innocent blood drops from your fiendish visage. Drag then, if you want, what remains into the filth, and the vermin of your foul dens, and burn it upon the altar of Baal or scatter it before the friendly winds of heaven to your betters—the carrion crows of the field. All that they may do, all and more. If there yet be open further depth of infamy to a polluted, besotted press.

"These ready servants of greed, what have they not done or attempted, to fasten still more securely an autocracy upon us? It seems to be their special function, not simply to prevent truth, but to threaten and terrorize public men. Dare a senator align himself with the people? What? Yes, men, illustrious servants of the people, have lifted honest voices here and elsewhere against the march of plutocracy, to fall ambushed, politically assassinated, and by whom? By the trusts wearoing masks. Ah, sir, newspaper masks. But, Mr. President, insignificant as I am, if my political career be marked, let them sharpen their blade, for I will be here at the appointed hour, and while here only God can stay my voice in behalf of organized united labor and the yeomary of America.

Patented Grate Sold.

Columbus, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—W. W. Jones, a Columbus barber, has sold to Macon people a patented grate, and it is understood that the grate will be manufactured by the purchasers on a large scale. It is said that he received $5,000 for his patent, and he is in Macon tonight concluding the transaction.

The device is said to be quite an improvement over the ordinary fire grate, and will throw heat in any direction desired, and there is also an attachment by means of which it can be easily relieved of its ashes.

Little Damage by Cold.

Carrollton, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—The damage caused by tthe cold was comparatively small, on account of the wind continuing to blow during the night. Some frost was noticed in low places, but fruit and vegetables are still in fine condition.

STOPPING ALL ENEMIES OF HIGH-PRICED COTTON.

The Constitution has persistently sought to drive home to the minds of the people of Georgia and the south this central idea—

That the price of cotton regulated the prosperity of every industry, of every man, woman and child in the southern states.

The situation could not be otherwise, with the staple crop of cotton the financial backbone of this section of the country.

Several days ago we quoted Richard H. Edmonds, editor of The Manufacturers' Record, of Baltimore, to the effect that the wave of agitation that had swept over the cotton belt had cost the cotton farmers, this year alone, in the neighborhood of $100,000,000.

Considering that this state supplies a large percentage of the yield, Georgia's prorata of that loss must be rather impressive.

Mr. Edmonds, who, until the unhappy days of the stringency, was accepted by all southern papers as the recognized exponent of southern industry, declared that the only way to cut off such loss to the farmers—therefore to every business interest—in the future, was to notify the country in UNCHALLENGEABLE manner that the south was forever done with all that stood for agitation.

That is one menace to just prices for cotton.

Another menace is the damaging and unjustified gambling in cotton on the New York cotton exchange and bucketshops, where the latter still operate.

In a recent public statement Congressman Burleson, of Texas, says:

"It is my purpose to press the bill I have introduced for the suppression of gambling in cotton, and I believe that ultimately I will succeed in passing it."

The Constitution shares Mr. Burleson's belief as well as his optimism.

All the energy and loyalty at the command of this paper have been concentrated on the effort to eliminate sheer gambling in the staple product of the south. Realizing the life-and-blood connection between cotton and prosperity in the south, The Constitution has been unwilling to abate in the slightest degree its campaign to remove this incubus that each year jeopardizes the well-being of the southern states.

For bona fide trading, for legitimate transactions, we have no words of condemnation. Both are essential to the proper poise of business under modern methods.

But there is the difference of light and darkness between legitimate buying and selling, and the use of the south's backbone crop as a pawn in the gambling game!

The two sources mentioned are, perhaps, the most conspicuous enemies to high-priced cotton—to "prosperity cotton."

Thinking men who realize that their own interests are bound up in the elimination of both, will lend their substantial cooperation to the crusade.

THE "TIMES" UNDULY EXCITED.

Lamentable, repulsive and absolutely unrepresentative faddism may be expected in this and every other country as long as intellectual fanatics find pleasure in exploiting their own mischievous ignorance.

It is supreme folly of this nature that characterized the so-called "social equality" dinner of the Cosmopolitan Club, given recently in New York city.

Members of both races mingled freely at the gathering, the express and enthusiastic purpose of which is reported to have been "equality and abolition of the caste" spirit by—miscegenation!

Here is the way The New York Times editorially regards this far-fetched affair, and its viewpoint is undoubtedly typical of representative northern sentiment:

In the first place, speakers at this banquet discussed what is expressly prohibited by the marriage laws of twenty-seven states and territories of this Union. That is, perhaps, the least of the reasons why public censure should be visited upon this exhibition of socialism in its nakedness. The opinions of a people may change, and then they may change their laws. This law strikes its roots deeper than the statute book. The establishment of a race "equality" and the intermarriage of whites with blacks are forbidden by an instinctive, prevailing and unconquerable resolve and condition of mind. Prejudice is not the name for it, since the thing is not a matter to be judged, but a matter as to which belief and conviction are innate. That belief and that conviction are so nearly universal as to be quite beyond the possibility of change; their universality and their depth are so attested by the facts of human experience that to call them in question is everywhere felt to be a public affront.

In the north we may be said to have no negro question, but there is a negro question in the south, and it would be well-nigh impossible to do the negroes of the south a greater injury than was done by these flabby-minded persons who assembled in New York city on Monday to talk about and to exemplify the social "equality" of the races. The wise friends of the negro race, those high-minded and philanthropic men who have given of their time and substance for its welfare and advancement, will be appalled by this performance. In the south it will be discussed with a degree of passion and resentment that must inevitably intensify existing differences and retard works of beneficence undertaken in behalf of the negroes. Upon the unpleasant suggestiveness of the associations involved no one here would be inclined to dwell, but we may be sure that in the south it will be frankly pointed out.

The friendly Times is unduly agitated. There would be "passion and resentment" throughout the south, if—

The south took this sort of thing seriously.

It does not take them seriously, and it is not so wrong-headed, hysterical or unjust as to believe for one instant that the morbid capers of a few doctrinaires represent the sentiment of a people.

There are, perhaps, five hundred white persons in the north of sufficient mental and moral bias—of sufficient mental and moral monomania—to be delighted to invite relations of perfect equality with the other race.

They are at liberty so to do at any time the temptation overcomes them.

They deprave—only themselves. They menace—only themselves!

The mind of the south and the mind of the north is set, for all times, in eternal and unqualified opposition to miscegenation.

The doctrinaires may indulge in their degrading and isolated whims to their hearts' content.

THE TRIUMPH OF A QUEEN.

Latest and most authentic reports assure us that Georgia will this year produce a record-breaking peach crop.

Therein lies, literally, a triumph of the queen—of Queen Elberta.

Used by the weather man alternately as a footstool and a target for his barbed shafts—she emerges serene from the conflict.

Slugged daily by the blows of misguided and hard-driven newspaper paragraphers, she has discredited their morbid predictions—flaunting her slowly pinkening blush in their disconcerted faces.

Oh, queen, live forever!

Down with the weather man and the paragraphers!

FROM HIS MOTHER'S PEOPLE

One beautiful and simple note rises above the strident clamor and fierce contention of republican national politics.

It is the signed request of the citizens of Roswell, Ga., to Theodore Roosevelt that he stand for reelection, regardless of the third-term precedent or any other inimical influence.

Roswell, fragrant with memories of the old regime in Georgia, recalling past grandeurs with the severe simplicity of its ancient colonial homes, is identified with the girlhood and the courtship of the mother of the president.

No matter, therefore, how he may regard the more serious purport of this petition, Theodore Roosevelt, half-southern, half-northern, wholly American, can be no less than thankfully proud of this evidence of esteem from his mother's people.

It is the truest testimonial to the national breadth of his personality. It explains why he appeals to the hearts of people, irrespective of the dividing lines of geography or politics.

Tammany and the Railroads.

For many years the Tammany delegation has been a conspicuous and picturesque feature of national democratic conventions. From hundreds it has grown to thousands of "Tammany braves" who journey each year to the convention town to see the democratic candidate named and started in the race.

But this year there is a chance at least of a very material diminution in the Tammany delegation that will go to Denver, unless the railroads come to terms with "Boss" Murphy, who says he is running the thing and that he will cut down the number unless the railroads give him a square deal.

It seems the Tammany boss had been given to understand that the cost of the round trip from New York to Denver would be $68, whereas the railroads are now getting ready to fix the figure at $82 per head, a difference of $14—not so much apparently, but decidedly something to be considered when more than 8,000 Tammanyites are anxious to make the trip.

If Murphy should succeed in cutting the delegation in half, even, as he is doubtless able to do, it would mean a loss of more than $200,000 to the railroads at the $64 rate, compared with their receipts on 4,000 persons at the $82 rate.

It is a question if the railroads will let slip the opportunity to add nearly a quarter of a million to their convention receipts.

The Eastern Trunk Line Association has not yet taken final action in the matter of the Denver rate, and until this is done Murphy refuses to let his committee sign contracts for trains.

It looks as if the Tammany boss holds the whiphandle this time, even over the railroads, and it is scarcely probable that they are going to take the chances of losing 4,000 or 5,000 Denver passengers, if they can get them by any concession that is within reason.

Picnic Times in Billville.

The first spring picnic was froze out on Tuesday last; but it was real convenient—pullin' icicles from the trees to cool the lemonade.

While two enterprising fellow-townsmen were "staking off" the ground for a picnic party both were attacked by a monster rattlesnake, but in stumbling around, to elude the snake, one of them fell over a jug which had been hidden in the bushes, and thus the lives of both men were immediately saved.

"Soon Be Time!"

Better pull yourself together,
For you've got to be in style;
Soon be time to swear at weather
Every minute—every mile!

Care—it sure becomes a feather,
And will vanish at a thought
When you saddle on the weather
All the troubles winter brought!

Let's be thankful! Every season—
Blizzards,—or when lightning's roam,
Gives us all a old-time reason
Why this world is not our home!

It Was the First of May.

"It is the First of May," he said, "and the living sunlight is trying to apologize for all the wild weather we've been having. There is not a cloud in the sky. The world is made new. Every prospect pleases. I—want—I want a ladder!"

"Dear me! And what do you want with a ladder?"

"To climb to the roof, and take a sunbath," he replied. "I have already told you it is the First of May. I wish to have unalloyed peace enjoying nature, and if I remain downstairs, answering the door bell may embarrass me. It is a fine day to be alone in!"

How It Happened.

Here's the way one rhyming brother strikes the tune:

"The weather was the driest
A feller ever knew;
I prayed for rainy weather
And—the

Fell
Due!

"The stormy clouds, they gathered
And hid the heavenly blue;
It didn't rain a minute:
No!—the
Note
Fell
Due!"

"No Hope in a Haircut."

The poet of The Adams Enterprise having had his hair cut, the editor of the paper makes this comment:

"That won't stop him. We know one of 'em who is as bald as a baby, and he's still pegging away. Only last week he wrote a poem of 14 verses. There's no hope in a haircut!"

TATTNALL COUNTY PRIMARY.

McLean Named for Senate, Kennedy and Smith for House.

Reidsville, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—The democratic white primary held in Tattnall county yesterday resulted as follows: Senator, J. L. McLean; representatives, J. L. Kennedy and M. W. Smith; ordinary, H. H. Daniel; clerk of court, R. J. Rogers; sheriff, J. A. Kennedy; treasurer, J. P. Stephens; tax collector, P. C. Smith; tax receiver, D. H. Holland; county commissioners, R. H. Kennedy, C. S. Harn and J. M. Easterling.

The surprise of the election was the defeat of the two present representatives from this county in the house, Hon. W. J. Warnell and Hon. W. T. Burkhalter. Warnell was making the race for the senate and Burkhalter was standing for reelection to the house. Almost every one was sure they would be elected. Warnell and Burkhalter are the first lawyers to represent this county in the house since the civil war.

LETTERS FROM PEOPLE.

Religious Affiliations of Candidates for President.

Editor Constitution: Will you please give me the denominational connections of the various candidates for the presidential nomination, and oblige a subscriber?

J. K. JENKINS.

Tecumseh, Ala.

The men who are avowed or receptive candidates for the office of president are of every shade of religious belief.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon, of Illinois, was born in North Carolina of Quaker forbears, and until his marriage to a Methodist girl, practiced the religion of the Friends. His marriage, however, was viewed unfavorably by that church, and a confession of regret was demanded as a condition of his return to full membership. Mr. Cannon stated that, in the very nature of things, he could not conscientiously or directly acknowledge to a feeling of regret right at that time, and he was dropped from the roll of the Friends. Whenever he goes to church now he visits one of the Methodist denomination. His contributions for religious purposes are made through the Methodists.

Governor Charles Evan Hughes, of New York, is a Baptist.

Vice President Fairbanks, as every one in the country probably knows, on account of a certain cocktail incident which resulted in his defeat as a delegate to a conference of his denomination, is a Methodist.

Senator P. C. Knox is an Episcopalian.

Senator Robert M. La Follette is a Unitarian.

Senator Joseph B. Foraker is a Methodist, but Mrs. Foraker is an Episcopalian, and the senator is an attendant at that church, although not a communicant.

Mr. Bryan, the democratic leader, is a Presbyterian.

Governor John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, who has been urged as a candidate for the democratic nomination, is not identified with any church, but his wife is a Catholic.

GOSSIP AT THE CAPITOL

Yesterday, May 1, the last day, under the law, for corporations to make their annual returns to the comptroller general, found the returns of the Atlantic Coast Line submitted at the same figures of last year, plus increase in tangible property, and with a protest at the figures.

These figures were those which the board of arbitrators fixed last year for the return of 1907. The aggregate value of the entire system in Georgia was placed at $15,571,000. The franchise of the road was put at $3,514,570.

The increase amount to about $100,000 last year's figures by the reason of more property being acquired by this road since the returns were agreed upon.

There are yet a number of large corporations, including the Southern, Seaboard, Atlanta and West Point railways and some municipal corporations yet to be returned, which will doubtless arrive on the morning mail.

WILL AID ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROHIBITION LAW

Judge Speer Says His Court Will Help Georgia People Enforce Georgia Law.

Albany, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—In passing sentence on two defendants who had entered pleas of guilty in the United States court to charges of selling spirituous liquors without having paid the government tax, Judge Emory Speer this morning declared his purpose of assisting, through his court, in every possible way, to make the Georgia prohibition law effective. The defendants, Robert Coley Smith, of Crisp county, and Henry Williams, of Mitchell county, were given penitentiary sentences and heavy fines, the court announcing the purpose of making examples of them.

Judge Speer told them that such offenses as theirs were far more serious than they would have been before Georgia enacted a prohibition law, and in conclusion he made this significant statement: "I want everybody to understand that since our people have determined that the manufacture and sale of ardent spirits shall stop, this court, to the extent of its jurisdiction under the United States law, is going to help the Georgia people enforce the Georgia law. Somebody may regard that as federal usurpation, but I do not think so. I think we are mutually helping each other."

HAVING TROUBLE ABOUT PAVING OF SIDEWALKS

Private Contractors Are Underbidding the Contractors Employed by the City.

The city is having some trouble about the laying of tile sidewalks. A representative of the Southern Tile and Stone Company, which has a contract with the city to lay tile sidewalks, appeared before the street committee of council yesterday, and stated that private contractors were going around and underbidding the city contractors.

It seems that the city has to give property holders 30 days' notice to lay curb and sidewalks, and if they do not do the work, then the city has it done, and charges the cost to the property. It was stated by the city engineer that the tile contract was for 11 1-3 cents on time, and 10 1-2 cents for cash, and that private contractors led the property holders to believe that the price was only for 11 1-3 cents.

The street committee decided to recommend to council not to permit the commissioner of public works to grade for sidewalks until the 30 days had expired, as this would force the private contractors to do the grading if they laid the tile.

BOTH SIDES OF THE RACE AS VIEWED BY STATE PRESS

That Is Just What It Means.

(From Thomas E. Watson's Weekly Jeffersonian.)

Hon. Thomas E. Watson, Thomson, Ga.—Dear Sir: I saw your article in your paper a few days ago relative to the new majority rule made by the state executive committee. Does this mean that, although Mr. Brown may carry a large number of counties, but does not get a majority in the state, Mr. Smith will be allowed to name the delegates to the convention from the counties carried by Mr. Brown?

Please give your opinion on this matter and its effect some prominence. Yours very truly, D. J. DAVIS.

Carnesville, Ga.

(Note: We are glad to see that the country people are getting on to the deep-laid plot of certain city politicians to get all of the rope into their own hands.

Under the new rule, Brown or any other candidate might carry fifty or more counties, but if the majority vote of the whole state was against him, the counties carried by Brown would be not represented by Brown delegates.

In other words, the Brown counties would be changed into anti-Brown counties. How is that for local self-government and representative conventions?

If this new and revolutionary rule stands, goodby to the influence of the small counties. The big cities will control, and that means that a handful of ring politicians sitting behind closed doors will be masters of the people. As Colonel Albert Cox has pointed in an able letter to State Chairman Lawton Miller, the winning candidate for governor would not only monopolize the convention in state matters, but also in national politics, so far as the convention was concerned.

Minorities would have no voice or vote, and all the counties that support the losing man will be given representatives who do not represent the people of that county.

Why not abolish small counties at once, and have done with it?)

Smith's Income Tax Proposal.

(From The Macon Telegraph.)

Speaking of taxes, the people have not forgotten that Governor Hoke Smith last year proposed to the legislature that the tax on fertilizers, which the farmers have to foot, should be raised from 10 cents to 25 cents.—Wrightsville Chronicle.

That may be true of the farmers, and doubtless is, but some of the small corporation men, who own incorporated banks, warehouses, newspapers, and other concerns smaller than railroads, seem to have forgotten his other proposal of a 1 per cent income tax on their business. How about that, gentlemen?

Hoke Smith Politics.

(From The Ocilla Star.)

It is to be regretted that Hoke Smith has not seen his way clear to make his campaign along the high moral line adopted by Mr. Brown. Whatever may be said of Joseph M. Brown he has indulged in no mud slinging. Every word that has emanated from him has been directed to the moral and intelligent voter. On the other hand, Hoke Smith has repeatedly and continuously charged the supporters of Joseph Brown with being hired politicians, members of the liquor ring and railroad lobbyists. Of course Hoke Smith knows each and all of these charges to be absolutely and unequivocally false, yet he continues to make them day after day.

Who Is Joe Brown?

(From The Statesboro News.)

Some one said here recently that if Joe Brown was the kind of a man that Hoke Smith said he was that he wouldn't vote for him, and, for that matter, the editor of The News wouldn't do it if he was such a man, but the abuse heaped upon him yesterday by a man who ought to be above such tactics is all untrue and without foundation in any particular.

Joe Brown is good enough for the support of such men as Dr. John E. White, pastor of the Second Baptist church in Atlanta, Hoke Smith's own town; Dr. J. W. Lee, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, in Atlanta, Hoke Smith's own town; Dr. S. Y. Jameson, president of Mercer university, and others of such high standing that his ability and character cannot be questioned. He is good enough to be backed by four-fifths of the voters of his own county, and by three thousand majority in Hoke Smith's own county; by a majority in Hoke Smith's own city ward in Atlanta; by a club of one thousand voters in Bartow county, an adjoining county to where he was raised. In that county Hoke Smith had published a date for a speech at Cartersville on May 2. After finding out practically every man in Bartow county was a member of the Joe Brown Club the governor has canceled his date there, and seeks fields where they don't know him so well.

He is good enough to have a club of over seven thousand voters in Hoke Smith's own home county.

Of course, any man who would attempt to challenge Boss Hoke would be very ugly, but if Joe Brown is good enough for his own neighbors and Hoke Smith's neighbors, too, then he is good enough for us. He is also good enough for one of his friends to place $10,000 wager that he will be governor, $1,000 of which is in the hands of The News.

A Clean Campaign.

(From The Macon Telegraph.)

The Atlanta Journal has a conniption fit every day because Joe Brown will not get out and run his campaign just to suit Hoke Smith and his adherents. Certainly a man has a right to run a campaign just like he wishes to. Mr. Brown is running a clean, quiet, unobtrusive campaign. He is villifying no one and he is seeking no vote by the arts of demagogy. His campaign along those lines is in great contrast to the campaign of Governor Smith.—Athens Banner.

Under the evident impression that no one has a right to run for governor except Mr. Smith, The Journal, and the governor himself, has applied the lash of partisan hate upon Mr. Brown; but under the most provoking conditions the Marietta man has preserved remarkable dignity, conservatism and poise. His utterances have been cool, but strong; parliamentary, but incisive; high-toned, but convincing. He has abused nobody, thrown no dirt and cast no aspersions. His remarkably clean campaign reminds one of the dignity and character which invested the seekers after high places in the older and better days of the republic. May his kind in politics increase.

Hopelessly Despondent.

(From The Fitzgerald Enterprise.)

Today the campaign has almost come to a standstill. The managers of Brown's campaign are hopelessly despondent. They know that Smith will be elected by an overwhelming majority, and any effect on their work cannot stop the onrushing tide of sentiment that is changing every day, not a few, but hundreds and thousands of votes from the Brown side to the Smith column.

The Smith people in the state have never been discouraged, and there is unbounded joy in that camp today.

You can't fool a reading, thinking, sober people any of the time, and the fruitless efforts of the whisky people in trying to foist upon Georgia a plan to gain control of the state is an evidence of the stability of the people of the "Empire State of the South."

A Peculiar Situation.

(From The Moultrie Observer.)

The political situation in Georgia just now is a very peculiar one indeed. To observe the opposition that is seen on every hand to Hoke Smith and the administration, in the face of the fact that the governor is opposed by a man who would not be considered very strong and who his own friends feel it necessary to apologize for, and also in the face of the fact that it has so long been the custom in Georgia to give a governor a second term, one is led to believe that Governor Smith must be the most unpopular man in the whole south. And yet, what do we see? Wherever the governor goes he is confronted with record-breaking audiences. The people hear him and seemingly approve of his utterances. Even in the strongest positions of the opposition we find people turning out by the thousands to hear him and give their indorsement to him. It is doubtful if in the whole United States there is a governor who could draw larger crowds or create more enthusiasm. The only thing we can make out of it is that there are a lot of folks in Georgia and that they are badly divided politically.

Found Twenty Hoke Smith Men in Statesboro.

(From The Statesboro News.)

M. S. Scarboro, having a day off, took yesterday to make a poll of the town of Statesboro on the gubernatorial question. He started out by asking everybody whom he met how they stood. Standing in front of the hardware store of Jones & Kennedy, those who passed by were polled. Late in the afternoon Mr. Scarboro stated that he had found twenty supporters of Hoke Smith in Statesboro, though he was satisfied there were quite a number of others here who would support the governor. When asked how many Brown men he found, he answered: "Oh, well, you know Brown is away ahead here. I was just trying to find how many Smith men there were here, being a Smith man myself. There are about four hundred and fifty white voters in Statesboro, you know, and if there are twenty for Hoke it will be a tight pull here." About this time R. M. Williams came up, and Mr. Scarboro told him he could go to Metter and pick out Hoke Smith men there, too. This was disputed by Mr. Williams, who stated that he was a citizen of Metter, and he had been unable so far to pick out a single voter in that city who would support Smith, and, notwithstanding the fact that Smith had a club of more than one hundred there in his last race. Mr. Williams was a supporter of the governor the last time, but has quit him good and strong this time.

"Whose Gang on the Stump."

(From The Statesboro News.)

The announcement has been made that Judge Hines and a lot of other speakers will be sent out through the state during the month of May to save Hoke Smith.

Speaking of "hired politicians," this seems to be going the limit. Judge Hines has many friends in this section of the state, but he will not be able to do much for his man Smith. He owes Governor Smith for the job he holds as attorney for the $35,000 railroad commission at a salary of $2,000 a year. It is said the judge has little else to do but draw his salary and go out and make speeches to repay the governor for giving a job at an expense to the taxpayers of the state of $2,000 per year.

Then we are to be infested with a good many other speakers who will go on the stump for the governor, who is spending his entire time on the stump. He is receiving a salary of $5,000 per year to make campaign speeches.

It would not surprise us to hear that all of the members of that $35,000 railroad commission who have done nothing for the people to be out on the stump and save Hoke.

Hoke Smith is undoubtedly the most frightened man in four hundred states.

Governor Smith's Speech.

(From The Dublin Courier-Dispatch.)

The political address of Governor Smith on Wednesday was all that his followers could wish.

He had a splendid audience. It was enthusiastic and the address was well received.

Just how many were present is a matter of speculation. The auditorium seats only 1,620, and there were vacant seats in the rear. A number could have secured seats had they desired them, preferring to stand so as to be nearer the stage. Rev. William F. Smith, pastor of the Dublin Methodist church, who introduced the speaker, estimates the crowd as follows:

Some think there were less than that number present, but there little doubt that the crowd approximated 1,400.

Just how many stood up when the proposition was made is also a mater of speculation. A conservative estimate would put it at two-thirds. More than that number stood up, but many cannot vote. Perhaps it would be more correct to say that one-third of the voters did not stand and thus pledge themselves to Governor Smith.

The character of the audience is another thing to speculate on. There is no doubt of the fact, however, that it was largely a town audience. There were several hundred countrymen present, but the bulk of the audience were town people.

Be that as it may, the audience was there, the enthusiasm was there and the Smith supporters are in better spirits than they have been for some time.

On a High Plane.

(From The Athens Banner.)

You do not hear of Little Joe Brown villifying his opponent. He is conducting his campaign on the highest plane and is to be commended for it. On the other hand there are all kinds of false charges being circulated against him. He simply denies them, furnishes the proof of their falsity and goes on. He is not losing his temper, nor is he given to recrimination. He is waging the right kind of a fight and is winning right along. There is no doubt of the result of the primary on June 4.

SMITH AND BROWN CLUBS

Formed in Stephens County During the Past Week.

Toccoa, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—Seventy-five persons were present at the Brown gotten-up-hurriedly meeting last night. Hon. H. M. Payne was elected chairman, and D. W. Owen, secretary. Several speeches were made, and a plan of campaign to cover the entire county of Stephens formulated.

During the afternoon a paper asking for members of the Joe Brown club was circulated in the business part of the town for a short time, and more than 200 names were secured.

During Friday, Saturday and Monday the friends of Mr. Smith secured the names of about 80 persons who declared themselves for Hoke Smith, and on Tuesday night held a meeting at the court house. Thirteen were present. C. W. Bond was elected president, and W. G. Davis, secretary.

CRAWFORD WON IN BARTOW.

Gubernatorial Race Was Made an Issue in the Fight.

Cartersville, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—An election for representative to fill the unexpired term of Hon. W. J. Neel, deceased, was held in Bartow county today, in which J. B. Crawford and L. W. Reeves were the candidates. Without the consent of either candidates the gubernatorial race between Brown and Smith was made an issue, and Crawford, who was supported by the Brown men, won over Reeves by about 300 votes. The result at Cartersville was Crawford 297; and Reeves 221.

Savannah Is Very Sanguine.

Savannah, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—Returning from New York, where he has been working in Savannah's interest for the Vanderbilt cup race, Harvey Granger states that he believes the big auto event will be brought to Chatham county in October. Connecticut is self-eliminated by state laws forbidding auto racing. St. Louis is too far inland, while Savannah can be reached by foreign cars on the ship on which they sail from the old country. The announcement of the decision of the cup commission is expected within a few days.

Struck by Lightning.

Savannah, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—Followed by a clap of thunder that woke everyone in Savannah, lightning struck the cupola of the Barnard street building at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, throwing down a half hundred heavy tiles to the pavement below, and burning out and wrecking the telephone system in the building. The board of education will probably consider supplying lightning roads for the buildings at once.

Primary Held in Houston.

Perry, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—In the most spirited contest in years the following county officers were yesterday nominated: Sheriff, George Winn; ordinary, Stonewall Hose; superior court clerk, Charles Hardison; tax collector, J. W. Rushing; receiver, J. W. Prator; treasurer, Asbury Durant; coroner, Barney Schilling; surveyor, W. L. Carr; representatives, T. H. Rentz and R. N. Holtzclaw.

Address by Governor Comer.

Montgomery, Ala., May 1.—(Special.)—Governor B. B. Comer left today for Mobile, where he will address the medical department of the state university tonight.

ONE LITTLE FROG HOLDS UP CITY

Remarkable Cause for No Paved Streets.

COUNCIL GETS DESPERATE

Investigation as to Why No Chert Is on Hand to Pave the Streets of the City Brings to Light a Remarkable Story.

This may seem a very remarkable declaration, but the truth of it was made plain at a meeting of the council street committee yesterday afternoon.

Twenty-two streets of Atlanta have been passed up for chert pavement. Many of them have been graded and are all ready, but there is no chert. Some time ago a contract was made with W. F. Plane to furnish the chert to the city. Streets were passed up for the pavement, but there was no chert in sight. Citizens began to clamor for chert. Telephones were daily ringing and members of council were besieged with inquiries about why this and that street was not paved. Mr. Plane was in the meantime kept busy and reported several times that he was doing his best and the chert would soon be there.

Something had to be done, for things were getting desperate. So the street committee of council called upon Mr. Plane for an explanation.

Then the story of how one little frog was holding up the city of Atlanta came out.

All About the Frog.

Mr. Plane stated that at Sparks Gap, 13 miles from Birmingham, Ala., from where the chert had been ordered, the spur track of the Southern railway had gotten into such a bad condition as to be unfit for use and the cars of shert could not be hauled away. An appeal was made to the Southern railway, and after some delay a gang of hands were put to work on the spur. On last Saturday the track was all complete with the exception of switch frog. It would not have taken the hands more than two hours to put in the frog, but there came an order for all hands to work on the main line, where it had been damaged by the cyclone. The hands immediately departed from Sparks Gap, leaving the frog lying on the side of the road. And there it still lies.

There are sixty-five car loads of chert waiting, all loaded with chert, at Sparks Gaps, but not a one can be moved until the frog is put in place.

The street committee decided that the matter was of such a serious and momentous nature as to require some immediate action, and a committee was appointed to wait at once on Barbour Thompson, assistant to the superintendent of the Southern railway, to see if something cannot be done at once to get that frog put in place so Atlanta's streets can be paved.

WASSER GIVES NOTICE TO GROCERS OF CITY

Meat Inspector Wasser is distributing among the grocers and butchers of the city copies of Alderman Key's ordinance relating to the display of goods on the streets in such a manner as to collect dirt. The ordinance, in full, is as follows:

Section 1. That from and after June 1, 1908, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, or agent for such, to display any groceries, vegetables, meats, dates, figs, prunes or other goods used for food and liable to collect dirt, dust and filth from the streets, one the outside of any building where such persons, firm or corporation, or agent is conducting any business.

Sec. 2. That section 1068 of the city code of Atlanta shall not be construed to conflict with the terms of this ordinance and shall be considered as amended so as not to allow the class of goods herein enumerated displayed on the sidewalks.

Sec. 3. That any person, firm or corporation or agent thereof violating the terms of this ordinance, shall, on conviction, be fined in the sum of not more than $10 or imprisonment for not more than thirty days, one or both in the discretion of the recorder.

The ordinance was adopted at the last meeting of council, and Inspector Wasser is anxious that all merchants be made familiar with its provisions in order that there be no misunderstanding in regard to the liability of fine they may incur.

BLACKSMITH PREACHER TO BE HEARD SUNDAY

The interest in the Sunday afternoon meetings at the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association is sustained at a high standard. Next Sunday, at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. J. N. Ewing, the blacksmith and watchmaking preacher will be the speaker. Mr. Ewing formerly worked in the railroad shops in this city, and has a large circle of friends among the railroad men, who will be glad of this opportunity of hearing him. He is a man of strong natural ability, and his power of illustrating from the practical things of life is often quite thrilling. No man can hear him without being stirred in his better nature. A cordial invitation is extended to all men, and a large crowd is expected.

SKATERS FROM NEW YORK ADMIRE ATLANTA RINK

There were several New York young women at the skating rink during the past week, who exclaimed with delight over the beauty and size of the St. Nicholas rink at Ponce De Leon, and say that it is larger than any in New York.

New York people are enthusiastic about skating at present, the ice skating rink having been remodelled into a roller skating rink and Madison Square Garden's great enclosure is to be floored over into a gigantic skating rink for the summer, where there are instructors to teach all manner of fancy steps.

CARD INDORSED BY "FORTY-ONE"

Employees of W. & A. Shops Give Out Statement.

Styling themselves "the notorious 'forty-one' employees of the Western and Atlantic shops alluded to in The Atlanta Journal as 'durn fools,'" the shop men of the state road held a meeting at the Western and Atlantic round house at noon yesterday and took action indorsing the card printed in Friday's Constitution over the signatures of George L. Ehlers and Edward D. Saye.

At the close of the meeting the following statement to the public was given out:

In order that the general public may understand the article published in The Atlanta Constitution in reply to an article that appeared in The Atlanta Journal some days ago, we, the notorious "Forty-one" employees of the W. & A. shops, alluded to in The Atlanta Journal as "durn fools," wish to state to the public that the card published in The Atlanta Constitution and signed by Messrs. Saye and Ehlers in answer to one that appeared in The Atlanta Journal attacking the employees of the W. & A. shops, was not only the sentiment of Messrs. Saye and Ehlers, but the sentiment of the "Forty-one" who cast their votes for Mr. Brown in the recent straw ballot.

And we, the employees, do hereby ratify the stand taken by our fellow workmen, Messrs. Saye and Ehlers. Yours truly,
"FORTY-ONE, DURN FOOLS"—SO-CALLED.

WORK TO START ON RESERVOIR

Mayor and Alderman Beutell Hold Conference.

DIRT TO FLY IN TWO WEEKS

Some Preparatory Work to Be Done and Then the County Convicts Will Begin to Remove the Dirt at the Reservoir Site.

Within two weeks dirt will be flying at the site of the new reservoir, and a work will be started which means in a little while that Atlanta's danger of a water shortage will be over for many years to come.

At a conference between Mayor Joyner and Alderman Beutell, vice chairman of the finance committee, it was decided to take steps to have the work of excavating at the new reservoir started at once.

Chairman Grant, of the finance committee, is absent from the city, and will not return for two weeks. He is thoroughly in accord with what the mayor and Alderman Beutell propose to do, and will be glad to see that work on the reservoir has been started when he reaches the city.

Some Preparatory Work.

There will be some preparatory work which will take about ten days, such as having the machinery placed at the reservoir and notifying the county commissioners so the squad of convicts can be secured.

The city has provided the necessary $20,000 and has let the contract for the machinery. The county commissioners stated some time ago that as soon as the city was ready the convicts would be put to work on the reservoir.

It will take four or five months to remove the dirt, and then some sixty days will be required in which to get the reservoir in shape so the water can be turned in.

"We have got to a point where we can now proceed to do the work," stated Mayor Joyner, "and I want to see this good piece of work completed before my administration closes."

M'DOWELL WAS NOMINATED.

Administration Indorsed by 9th District Senatorial Convention.

Arlington, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—The democratic convention of the ninth district met in Arlington today and confirmed the choice of Early county, T. B. McDowell, as senatorial nominee. Judge John O. Perry presided over the convention. The following resolution offered by State Senator Cowart was adopted by a rising vote, there being only one dissenting vote out of eighteen delegates.

"Whereas, the democratic convention of the ninth senatorial district, assembled for the purpose of nominating a senator, believing that the affairs of our state are being honestly and fairly administered to the best interests of all our people of whatever class and to the upbuilding of our great state, by our present governor, therefore be it

"Resolved, That this convention does hereby heartily indorse the present state administration; and be it further

"Resolved, That we do indorse most heartily our present governor for re-election, believing that it is not only fair and right to him, but that the state of Georgia needs him above all persons to steer the ship of state another term."

The newly-nominated senator and several spectators joined in the rising vote.

W. W. FLEMING,
Secretary of Convention.

WILCOX COUNTY PRIMARY.

Contest Will Be Made in Judgeship of City Court.

Abbeville, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—Wilcox county primary was held Wednesday and the returns have been consolidated. The most exciting race was for judge of the city court of Abbeville, in which the incumbent, Judge D. B. Nicholson, of Rochelle, was opposed by Judge C. C. Curry, of Abbeville. Consolidated returns show a majority of four in favor of Judge Nicholson, but Judge Curry has given notice of a contest in one district. Hon. John T. King defeated Dr. T. R. Moye for state senate. Hon. D. M. Harvey defeated A. P. Greene for the legislature. Ordinary J. M. Warren, Clerk W. J. Hancock and Solicitor M. B. Cannon were reelected without opposition.

The race for sheriff was exciting, there being six contestants in the field. Sheriff L. H. Glenn was reelected by a large majority. L. F. Nance defeated G. C. Mixon for treasurer. The present tax collector was defeated for reelection by C. S. McCall, Jr., by a large majority. J. A. Dennard was reelected tax receiver over L. H. Crump by a plurality of only nine votes. B. O. Tomberlin was elected surveyor and G. B. Turner, coroner.

11,300 PEOPLE AT AMERICUS.

Census Shows an Increase of 50 Per Cent Since 1900.

Americus, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—Announcement was made this morning of the result of the census of Americus recently completed, showing the city's population 11,300, an increase of exactly 50 per cent since the government census.

The result was in accordance with popular expectations, as the city's growth in recent years has been well nigh phenomenal.

RECEIVED UNKNOWN TONGUE.

Since Then Have Refused to Work or Change Clothes.

Meansville, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—Jeff Stallings and Mattie Devoe, while attending a holiness meeting at Vega last August, received what they term the "unknown tongue." Since that time neither has done any work or changed clothing, spending the time in prayer or conversing with eath other in the "unknown tongue."

Last week some of the neighboring citizens swore out a writ of lunacy for them and Sheriff M. G. Harrison went to bring them to Zebulon for trial. When he approached them they said the prayer of God was on them and the sheriff and one thousand men could not carry them. Sheriff Harrison and his deputy promptly exploded this idea and brought them to Zebulon and placed them in the county jail.

A party of holiness friends came to their rescue and made bond for their appearance at court the next week. Both refused to go, saying God had not told them to leave the prison.

RECEIVER WILL SELL 4,000 SAVINGS BANKS

An order was made yesterday morning by Judge Pendleton granting the receivers of the Neal bank the privilege of disposing of 1,500 savings banks at the rate of 25 cents each cash. The Central Bank and Trust Corporation reports that it has on hand some 4,000 of these banks. The attorneys for the receivers are Candlers, Thompson & Hirsch.

WAS GIVEN SEVEN YEARS.

Letten Was Found Guilty of Embezzling $100,000.

New Orleans, La., May 1.—Charles L. Letten, formerly chief clerk in the office of the state tax collector for the first district of New Orleans, was today sentenced to serve seven years in the penitentiary after a jury had declared him guilty of embezzling $100,000.

Letten disappeared last summer and upon the discovery of the shortage in his accounts a search for him was begun. He was finally found on the river front, where he had been attempting to summon up sufficient courage to drown himself.

HEARING AT MONTGOMERY.

Commission Finished With Montgomery Rate Matter.

Montgomery, Ala., May 1.—The interstate commerce commission finished today with the hearing of the complaints of the Montgomery freight bureau and this evening took up the New Orleans cases that were not finished in that city.

Manager Kealhofer, of the Montgomery freight bureau, denied, as an expert, that there is any uniform method of rate-making and pointed out cases of hurt to this section to relieve other places.

To Protect Range Cattle.

Washington, May 1.—Representative Porter, of New York, today laid before the president an appeal from the American Humane Association for the protection of range cattle in the west. The association desires that the pending Burkett bill be amended in the senate so as to require cattlemen who lease government ranges to provide food and water for their stock.

SOCIETY

Annual Parish Reception.

Last night from 8 to 10 o'clock the annual parish reception of the St. Philip's cathedral was held in the Sunday school building of the church. Delicious refreshments were served and the occasion was enjoyable in every way.

Aside from the social nature of the reception, the gathering served to bring together the various church committees whose duty it was to report on the progress of the church during the past year.

Such committees were heard from as follows: T. H. Austin, treasurer of the parish; T. H. Williams, for the Sunday school; C. L. Pettigrew, secretary of the minor chapter of the parish; Will Clower, for the choir boys' auxiliary; Miss Julia Pise, for the junior auxiliary. Rev. C. T. A. Pise presided.

Taylor-Price.

One of the bright and attractive events of the season was the marriage of Dr. Leland Taylor, of South Carolina, to Miss Mary Virginia Price, at the residence of Mrs. M. E. Price, No. 86 Richardson street, Atlanta, on Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock, April 28, 1908, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. C. Christian, pastor of St. John Methodist Episcopal church, south, in the presence of relatives and a few special friends. The attendants were Miss Kate McCalla and Dr. Sanders Whitehead, with little Margaret Parks as flower girl. A great many beautiful and valuable presents were received. Delightful refreshments were served. The party left on the midnight train for the home of Dr. Taylor at Greenville, S. C., where they will reside. The groom is a popular graduate of the Atlanta Dental college, where he has studied for several years, and the bride one of Atlanta's loveliest young women.

Out-of-town guests attending the marriage were Miss Alma Campbell, of Georgetown, S. C., and Mr. Vinson Taylor, brother of the groom.

Rev. Anna Shaw to Lecture.

Rev. Anna H. Shaw, the distinguished woman suffragist, who speaks in Atlanta on Monday evening, is a minister of the Methodist Protestant church. She is a graduate of Boston university in both medicine and theology.

After completing her lecture tour in the south Miss Shaw goes to Amsterdam to attend the executive meeting of the International Woman's Suffrage Alliance, June 15 to 20, inclusive.

At this national conference thirteen countries will be represented.

Miss Shaw comes to Atlanta under the auspices of the Georgia Woman's Suffrage Association.

Mrs. Peel's Luncheon.

Mrs. William Lawson Peel entertained at an elegant luncheon yesterday, her guests including the officers and board of managers of the Joseph Habersham chapter, Daughter of the American Revolution, as follows:

Mrs. William Nixon, Mrs. George Dexter, Mrs. A. B. Steele, Mrs. W. F. Dykes, Miss Hornady, Mrs. T. J. Ripley, Mrs. W. R. Hammond, Mrs. J. R. Watts, Mrs. Robert Zahner, Mrs. Thomas Murray, Mrs. John M. Graham, Mrs. William Prioleau, Mrs. Henry Collier, Miss Mobley, Mrs. W. M. Hoke, Mrs. Peter Erwin, Mrs. J. H. Sunnally, Mrs. Joseph Allan, Miss Wootten, Mrs. R. M. Rose, Mrs. J. Wille Pope.

The hospitable home was decorated throughout with potted hydrangeas and azaleas, and in the dining room the decorations were in white peonies with pink centers. An antique silver punch bowl filled with them formed the table centerpiece, and accessory decorations were in silver of antique design and cut-glass.

Mrs. Peel was beautifully gowned in pale heliotrope satin, trimmed in lace.

Stores May Close at Noon.

A number of Atlanta women are discussing the advisability of petitioning the retail merchants of Atlanta to close their stores at noon on Saturdays during the summer months, thus giving the employees the same half holiday that is given in New York, Chicago and other larger cities.

Last year, it will be recalled, the stores closed earlier on summer afternoons, but it is the purpose of the Atlanta women interested to urge upon merchants to close their shops at noon.

At Pappenheimer Residence.

All music lovers and others who wish to help a good cause are interested in the two concerts to be given May 9 at the Pappenheimer home on Ponce de Leon avenue. It is seldom that so rare a musical treat is offered to the public as Miss Eda Bartholomew, the director; Mr. Oscar Pappenheimer and the talented musicians associated with them have under course of preparation. The audience at the matinee and evening concert is limited only by the capacity of the house, and the ladies in charge of the business end of the arrangements hope that every one who wishes to avail themselves of this delightful opportunity to be entertained will secure tickets as soon as possible. Mrs. W. M. Nixon, chairman, 583 Peachtree, will mail tickets to any one who communicates with her, and they can also be procured at the following places: Phillips & Crew's, Cole Book Company, Maier & Berkele, Cable Piano Company, Milton, Bradley Company and Peters building.

The following ladies have kindly consented to act as patronesses of the concert: Mrs. W. M. Nixon, Mrs. W. B. Price-Smith, Mrs. Nellie Peters Black, Mrs. A. McD. Wilson, Mrs. Julius M. Alexander, Mrs. A. W. Calhoun, Mrs. T. A. Hammond, Mrs. Hugh Inman, Mrs. J. A. Sommerfield, Mrs. Frank Hawkins, Mrs. W. M. Tuller, Mrs. Jhon Grant, Mrs. H. M. Atkinson, Mrs. Joseph T. Moody, Mrs. Isaac Boyd, Mrs. Carroll Payne, Mrs. William Greene Raoul, Mrs. Frank Inman, Mrs. Sam Inman, Mrs. J. Amsden and Mrs. Joseph Nunnally.

Any one of these ladies will give any desired information about the concerts. There have been many very cheerful responses made by those who have been asked to purchase tickets.

Miss Potts to Entertain.

Miss Elizabeth Potts will give a large bridge party next Friday afternoon at the Piedmont Driving Club, the guests to number seventy-five.

Miss Abrams' Tea.

A delightful event of yesterday was the tea given by Miss Marie Abrams, when she entertained a happy gathering of little girls. Her home on Ponce de Leon avenue was handsomely decorated, and a guessing contest formed amusement.

Everywhere there was artistic arrangement of pink roses and carnations with the house palms and ferns, and in the dining room the effective color combination of pink and green was continued in elaborate detail.

In the center of the lace-covered table was a bowl of pink carnations and ferns, the silver candelabra had pink shades, and candles and ices were in pink and green.

The guessing contest was made up of questions about a clock, the score cards were pen and ink sketches of a clock, and the prizes were a traveling clock and a picture.

Assisting in entertaining were Misses Anne Orme, Helen Pryor, Evelyn Reynolds, Caroline Nicolson, Nellie Hood Ridley, Katherine Bleckley, Laura Margaret Hoppe, of Marietta. Miss Ethel Hughes served punch.

Birthday Party.

Miss Meta Mau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mau, was at home to between twenty-five and thirty lads and lassies at 19 Garnett street, the Mau home, last night. It was Miss Mau's fifteenth birthday, and those invited to meet her were of about the same age, many being accompanied by their parents. It was a most delightful evening to all, the refreshments served being of the most delightful kind. Miss Mau is one of the most intellectual and charming girls of her age in Atlanta. Music and games made the evening pass most delightfully for all.

Cake Sale.

There will be a sale of home-made cakes today, May 2, at Coffee's market, 13 North Broad street, under the auspices of Committee No. 4 of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Tabernacle church. Proceeds to be used for the new building of the Tabernacle infirmary.

Dinner Party.

Colonel and Mrs. W. A. Wimbish entertained a party of friends at dinner last evening, the occasion in celebration of the host's birthday anniversary. The house was beautifully decorated throughout with potted plants, and in the dining room the table decorations were in pink and white. Chatney roses and white carnations were artistically combined, and the electroliers had their shades in pink. The bonbon ices reflected that color.

Mrs. Wimbish was elegantly gowned in cream-colored satin, made empire fashion.

Club Meeting.

Mrs. James Logan and Mrs. John Owens won the club prizes, hand-painted plates, and Mrs. E. H. Goodhart, Jr., won the guest prize, a hand-painted pin cushion, at the bridge club meeting yesterday morning with Mrs. Richard Elliott Miller.

The meeting was an unusually enjoyable one, and the game was followed by a delicious luncheon. A quantity of roses filled vases and bowls throughout the pretty apartment.

Mrs. Miller was a lovely hostess, in white, her white silk gown worn with an Irish lace waist, and there were some charming spring toilets among the guests, the club members numbering twenty-four.

Dancing Party.

The Kappa Alpha dance was a delightful event of last night at Segadlo's, an attractive company of the school girl set being the guests of the Tech chapter.

Members from other chapters in Georgia colleges were present and added to the interest of the occasion, and the hall was prettily decorated in the fraternity colors.

Club Delegates.

Mrs. Robert Zahner was elected delegate from the Atlanta Woman's Club to the biennial in Boston, on June 22, and the president, Mrs. A. McD. Wilson, appointed as alternates Mrs. M. C. Russell, Miss Cora Brown and Mrs. Charles Behre, all of whom expect to attend the convention.

Meetings.

A regular meeting of the board of management of the Atlanta chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held at the home of the regent, Mrs. S. W. Foster, 549 Peachtree street, this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The meeting of the Atlanta and Decatur chapters of Agnes Scott Alumnae has been postponed from Friday, May 1, to Friday, May 8, and will be held at that time at the home of Miss Anna Young on Capitol avenue.

Social Items.

Mrs. Ovid Sparks has returned to Macon.

Mr. Barrett Phinizy returns today from Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. James Y. Swift have returned to Elberton.

Mrs. E. L. Tyler will remain with Mrs. Beck until Tuesday.

Mrs. John Oliver and children will spend the summer in Europe.

THEATERS

At the Orpheum.

Tonight brings the straw ballot at the Orpheum, when every person in the audience, man or woman, will be given a vote on the race for governor. The votes will be written upon the seat coupons and dropped in a box at the door when the vaudeville performance is over. This closes the week of one of the best bills of the vaudeville season. For next week a big program is offered, including Raffin's monkeys, a troupe of trained simians brought especially for the little folks who have been the Orpheum's patrons so often this season. The whole bill offers some unusually good specialties.

At the Bijou.

At the Bijou next week Little Chip and Mary Marble and their big company of singers and funmakers, augmented by a real beauty chorus, will appear in Joe Weber's production, "Dream City," which is described as a "near opera" in two puffs.

A company of sixty people will assist Little Chip and Mary Marble in their fun-making, and the many beautiful numbers in which this score abounds will bring out the pretty chorus girls that have always been a feature of this production.

"The Man on the Box."

Next week brings the Giffen company back to the Grand for the summer season, and on Monday night, May 4, "The Man on the Box" will be produced under the personal supervision of George Foster Platt, who staged this play so artistically and successfully at the Madison Square Garden theater in New York for two successive seasons. The play is one which has been seen here before and which is declared to be one of the most charming comedies ever dramatized from a popular novel.

Felder, Mr. Phinizy Calhoun, Mr. H. H. Seamans, Mr. W. E. Ragan Jr., Mr. E. V. Haynes, Col. and Mrs. R. J. Lowry, Mr. L. W. Werner, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, Mr. T. J. Lyons, Mr. H. B. Adams, Mr. D. H. Kirkland, Mr. J. R. Riley, Mrs. Jas. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nunually, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargan, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Meador, Mr. J. S. Slicer, Mr. H. H. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Caldwell, Mr. Arthur Clark, Mr. E. J. Dickey, Mr. Stuart Boyd, Mr. J. Hal Miller, Mr. Frank Orme, Mr. Madison Bell, Mr. W. P. Ellsworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miller, Mr. Hugh Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Austell Thornton.

New York Bars Closed.

New York, May 1.—More than 200 hotels in Manhattan island and in the Bronx, among them the big Savoy at Fifth avenue and Fifty-ninth street today were without licenses permitting them to serve liquors to their guests. Nearly 500 saloons, also without licenses, were ordered to keep their doors closed. This unusual condition is almost entirely due to the new liquor license law, which requires inspection and report by the department of buildings on every application for a license before a certificate is issued. It is likely that all the hotels and a majority of the saloons eventually will receive their certificates and will be permitted to continue.

MONEY TO PAY FOR TWO SHIPS

House Will Agree With Senate on Navy Matters.

Washington, May 1.—The house will agree to the senate amendment to the naval appropriation bill which adds to that measure an appropriation for the construction of two battleships authorized by the bill. The house naval affairs committee at a meeting today preliminary to the house-senate conference on the amended bill, discussed the various senate amendments and informally reached an understanding as to which of them ought to be accepted and which opposed. As the three house conferees are members of the naval committee, the understanding reached may be accepted as indicating the position to be taken by the house members of the conference. The amendment making appropriation for two battleships was wholly satisfactory to the committee.

New Assistant Secretary.

Washington, May 1.—The president sent to the senate today the following nomination: To be assistant secretary of commerce and labor, William R. Wheeler, of California.

PANAMA TRIP FOR SEC. TAFT

Charleston, S. C., May 1.—Secretary of War William H. Taft and party sailed for Panama on the naval transport Prairie today. Accompanied by General Counsel R. R. Rogers, of the Isthmian Canal commission, and W. W. Mischler, of the secretary's office, Secretary Taft reached this city this morning. The train over the Atlantic Coast Line bearing the party was delayed by a freight wreck about seventy miles north of Charleston.

When the party finally arrived at the union station Mayor R. G. Rhett, of Charleston; Lieutenant Stapley and Ensign Dexter, of the Prairie, and Collector of the Port William D. Crum were among those who greeted them. At the secretary's request, he was immediately driven to the home of Mayor and Mrs. Rhett, whose guest he was for an hour. At the customs house he met the officers of the Prairie and then entered a launch and was taken aboard the transport and the Prairie steamed out of port at 12:30 p. m.

The Taft party expects to reach Panama on the morning of May 6.

Secretary Taft will speak at Nashville May 21 before the Tennessee Bar Association and will make no other stops, either going or returning from Panama. He will return from Panama on the Prairie and will land either at New Orleans or Pensacola.

Revolutionist for Governor.

Havana, May 1.—The Zaylostacs have nominated Brigadier General Ernesto Asbert, one of the leaders in the revolution in 1906, for governor of Havana province. General Asbert was one of the first to take the field in the revolutionary movement, and did the chief fighting in this province. Since the end of the revolution, however, he has been very quiet.

Camp Was Instituted.

Sick 20 Years

Mrs. Martha Dingus
Lykins, Ky.

"I Feel It My Duty" writes Mrs. Martha Dingus, of Lykins, Ky., "to inform you as to what Cardui has done for me. I have been a chronic invalid for 20 years. I reckon I have had about every disease that women are heir to. I have doctored a great deal with a great many doctors, as we have traveled a great deal in search of health, yet received but little benefit, and got no better. Four months ago, I commenced to use Wine of Cardui and since then, have been steadily improving all the time. I am now 46 years old, and am in better health than I have been in 20 years, and I give Cardui the credit for it."

BIG ATLANTA CHAUTAUQUA COMES TO CLOSE TONIGHT

Two more sessions, and the Greater Atlanta Chautauqua will close. The two sessions today, however, are two of the most important of the entire week. This afternoon at 3 o'clock, sharp, will occur the big popular musical program of the week.

This program will be made up of all the musical talent of the week, with the addition of James O. Boone, of New York, tenor, and the great public school chorus, consisting of 600 voices, under the leadership of Professor B. C. Davis.

A great many people of Atlanta will remember the occasion of this chorus singing at Ponce de Leon at the May festival last year, and Professor Davis states he will have a much better trained chorus this year than he had last.

A large elevated stage has been built on the Grand platform, especially for this occasion, at a big expense. Little Miss Frances Craven Parks, who made such a hit at the children's matinee on Wednesday afternoon, will also appear on this program this afternoon, in some new songs and stories. She will sing one song especially to the chorus with her back to the audience.

The ever-popular Chicago Glee Club will also sing several selections on both programs, appropriate to the occasion. The management has announced a 25-cent rate to all the children of the city to the big matinee, and a 50-cent rate for grown people, and they confidently expect to have the opera house filled from pit to dome for this great occasion.

At night Dr. Edward Burton McDowell will present one of his famous travelogues, beautifully illustrated with both motion pictures and painted views. He will have for his subject "Cuba and the West Indies." All of the pictures Dr. McDowell shows during this lecture were made by him on a recent trip through the islands, and since they are copyrighted they could not be seen any where else. Dr. McDowell is no stranger in Atlanta, as he has appeared here on two or three occasions in the past under the auspices of the Atlanta Lecture Association, and he has never failed to delight his audience wherever he has spoken. The lecture he will present has never been delivered in this city, however, and will be a treat to those who hear it. This lecture will be a fitting close to the gala week, and Atlanta's first great Chautauqua will have had a successful close.

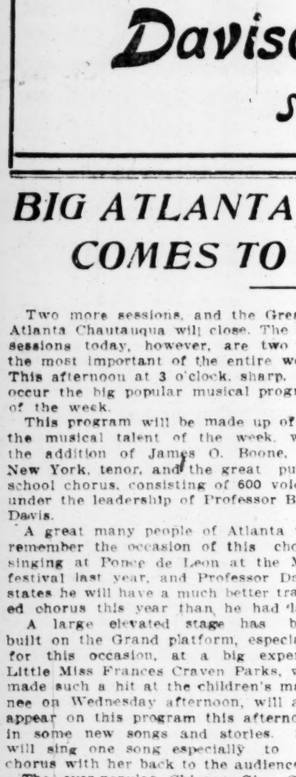

$600 ON SMITH TO CARRY STATE

Three Supporters of Governor Put Up Money for Wager.

Three supporters of Governor Smith yesterday placed with The Constitution $600, which they wish to wager that Governor Smith will receive more popular votes in the primary of June 4 than his opponent, Hon. Joseph M. Brown. This offer on the state is to be put against even money. One man put $500, and two others $50 each.

The conditions are to be that if either candidate dies before the date of the primary the wager is off, but that if either retires from the race the money goes to the backer of the other.

The Constitution has nothing to do with this offer, and makes the announcement merely as an accommodation to the three supporters of the governor.

THE WEATHER; FAIR, WARMER

"May" May Have Some Spring Conditions Coming Her Way.

The weather: Fair and warmer. An area of high barometer is moving in from the west, causing a rise in the temperature in the cotton belt.

There was quite a commotion on Alabama street yesterday. A young lady (merely by accident) kissed a stranger; a grass widow hugged her divorced husband; a saint swore an oath, and most of the white people turned black. It was a scene of great excitement. A huge steam roller was belching forth volumes of smoke that would make the funnel on an ocean liner look like a small affair. There was too much smoke, so much that one could not enjoy a cigar. Well, Atlanta is paving her streets. It takes smoke to do it. All kickers look out, or else walk in the mud.

The temperature has risen to the sixties, and will probably go higher in the next twenty-four hours.

HOLDING OLD-TIME REVIVAL.

Grant Park Baptist Church Enjoying "Religious Feast."

An "old time revival" is being held at the Grant Park Baptist church, corner of Georgia avenue and Grant street, and the services are being conducted by Rev. J. T. Edmundson, of Raleigh, N. C.

Mr. Edmundson is an evangelist of the old school, having been in the work for more than twenty years, and is one of the most capable ministers in the south, which is evidenced by the great work he has accomplished during the past four weeks. He believes only in the "old time religion," and is very impressive in his way of administering it to the people. He recently held a revival at McDonald church on West Fair street, where a great many were converted and connected themselves with the church.

Last week he held services at Edgewood Baptist church with equal results.

Mr. Edmundson is accompanied by his daughter, Miss Kathleen Edmundson, who assists him in all his evangelistic work. Miss Edmundson is a talented young singer, and is well remembered by the attendants of First Baptist church, where she has been singing to appreciative audiences during the recent morning meetings. In addition to Miss Edmund's singing, she does great work among the young people, especially the young ladies, holding afternoon prayer meetings and visiting among them.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the revival. Those in charge of the meetings state that all who attend will be treated to an "old time religious feast."

Holding Revival at Grant Park Baptist Church.

CHANGES BY THE SEABOARD.

Grimshaw Transferred to Savannah With Same Territory.

Savannah, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—Effective May 10, several changes in the superintendents of the Seaboard Air Line are to take place.

J. B. Grimshaw, superintendent of the fifth division, Savannah to Columbus and Montgomery, with headquarters at Americus, will be transferred to Savannah, retaining jurisdiction over the same territory and assuming also the direction of the Savannah terminals, of which J. B. Glazier has been superintendent. Mr. Glazier will become superintendent of the fourth division, Jacksonville to Columbia, with headquarters here.

G. Matson, who has been fourth division superintendent, goes to Jacksonville as chief dispatcher.

Commission Named.

Montgomery, Ala., May 1.—(Special.)—In accordance with the new code, Chief Justice John R. Tyson has appointed the commission to examine applicants for the bar, as follows: W. R. Walker, Athens; Thomas E. Knight, Greensboro, and W. L. Parks, Andalusia. This board holds office for four years, and the pay is $10 a day for every day the members work.

All applicants for admission to the bar must have their approval fo papers.

Arrests at Lisbon.

RETURNS MADE BY ATLANTANS

Gas Light Co. and Atlanta Northern Ry. Give Last Year's Figures.

The returns of the Atlanta Gas Light Company and the Atlanta Northern railway were filed yesterday with Comptroller General Wright, for taxation, state, county and city, during the year 1908.

President G. W. Brine, of the Atlanta Gas Light Company, returned the Gas Light property at the same valuation upon which taxes were paid last year—$1,500,000. Of this sum $608,400 is put down as the value of the franchise.

President P. S. Arkwright returned the valuation of the Atlanta Northern railway, which operates between this city and Marietta, at the same figures upon which it was taxed last year—$241,569.73. Of this sum $29,988 was put down as the value of the franchise.

President Arkwright endeavored to work out the returns of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company in time to return them at the same time, but was unable to get all of the facts and figures in time. He explained this to Comptroller Wright, and stated he would make these returns early during the week.

JOSEPH L. COBB IN RACE FOR THE LEGISLATURE

Joseph L. Cobb, a veteran of the civil war and a well known Atlanta attorney, has announced himself a candidate for the legislature from Fulton county, subject to the democratic primary of June 4. If elected he will advocate the following principles:

Annual payment of confederate pensions; perpetuation of the Soldiers' home; encouragement of foreign capital to invest in the state; fair treatment of corporations and an equitable adjustment between capital and labor; municipal contracts with street car and electric companies for the transportation of policement, firement and waterworks employees; passage of such laws as will result in the greatest good to the greatest number of people; local option if the state prohibition law is to be changed.

Colonel Cobb is a native Georgian and has resided in the county nearly twelve years. He entered the confederate service at the age of sixteen, fighting under Generals Johnson and Wheeler from Chattanooga to Greensboro, N. C., and participating in the battle of Atlanta in 1864. His first suffrage was cast in 1868 for General John B. Gordon, and since that time he has been closely allied with the principles of democracy.

Mrs. Hall With the Leader.

Fitzgerald, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—An important change took place in the newspaper field here recently when Mrs. Nettie C. Hall (Mother Enterprise) accepted the position of local editor on The Leader. Mrs. Hall has been engaged in newspaper work since coming to Fitzgerald in 1896, and for four years was the editor of The Enterprise, being on its staff when the paper was first launched by Messrs. Piper and Lyon.

Fitzgerald Revival Closed.

Fitzgerald, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—The revival services which have been in progress at the Central Methodist Episcopal church for the past two weeks under the direction of Evangelist J. M. Bass came to a close Thursday evening. Much interest has been manifested and large congregations have been in attendance. Between thirty-five and forty have made public confession during these meetings and will be received into membership by the various churches of the city.

Move Against Leishman.

Washington, May 1.—Representative Murdock, of Kansas, today took up with the state department the alleged action of Ambassador Leishman in endeavoring to induce Mrs. Bernard Warkentin to sign a paper releasing the Turkish prince who accidentally shot her husband on a railroad train near Damascus, from prosecution. The state department will request an explanation from the ambassador. The matter has not gone so far as filing a formal complaint against Mr. Leishman and probably will not, at least, until his explanation is received.

Minister Made Ambassador.

Tokio, May 1.—It was officially announced today that I. Motoni, Japanese minister at St. Petersburg, had been promoted to the rank of ambassador.

City Court at Fitzgerald.

Fitzgerald, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—City court has been in session since Monday with a large criminal docket, which was finished today. Civil cases will consume the rest of the week. Some time during last night two negro prisoners who were left in the corridor of the jail outside of the steel cage escaped by sawing a hole through the floor and crawling through the ventilator. One of them, named Tom Clayton, had been sentenced to ten months on the chaingang for gambling, and the other, named Harry Collins, was awaiting trial on the charge of larceny after trust.

Montreal Bricklayers Strike.

Montreal, May 1.—Building operations had to be partially abandoned here today because of a strike of 500 bricklayers, who demand increased wages. Otherwise labor conditions here are undergoing no disturbance on this May day. The socialists of the city have arranged for a big parade tonight and it is claimed that they have obtained permission from Mayor Bayette to carry red flags.

Lockout in British Ship Yards.

London, May 1.—The negotiations for a settlement of the ship building dispute have failed again, and the lockout notices issued a week ago will go into effect tomorrow at all the yards of the United Kingdom.

Charged With Regicide.

Lisbon, May 1.—Macdo Braganaa and Meades Almejada, who were active in organizing the manifestations at the graves of the men who on February 1 assassinated King Carlos and his son in Lisbon, have been arrested on the charge of complicity in the plot against his majesty.

HESTER'S MONTHLY COTTON STATEMENT

New Orleans, La., May 1.—Secretary Hester's New Orleans cotton exchange statement, issued today, covers the monthly movement to April 30, and the weekly movement to May 1, inclusive.

Compared with last year it shows a decrease for the month in round figures of 86,000 bales, compared with year before last a decrease of 89,000, and with 1905 a decrease of 421,000.

The total for April was 481,630, against 567,370 last year; 570,422 year before last, and 902,212 same time in 1905.

The movement from September 1 to April 30, inclusive, shows receipts at all United States ports 7,725,096, against 9,368,455 last year; 7,137,636 year before last, and 8,555,753 same time in 1905; overland across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac rivers to northern mills and Canada 635,570, against 1,089,842 last year; 862,118 year before last, and 932,643 same time in 1905; southern mills takings, exclusive of quantity consumed at southern outports 1,767,000, against 1,863,000 last year; 1,752,454 year before last, and 1,638,000 same time in 1905; and interior stocks in excess, those held at the commencement of the season 282,000, against 280,674 last year; 257,469 year before last, and 408,052 same time in 1905.

These make the total movement of the cotton crop brought into sight during the 8 months ending close of April 10, 409,695, against 12,601,971 last year, 10,009,677 year before last, and 11,534,448 same time in 1905.

Northern spinners took during April 126,922 bales, against 131,493 last year, and 152,340 year before last, increasing their total for the 8 months to 1,466,857, against 2,302,421 last year, and 2,079,409 the year before. This makes their average weekly takings for the season 42,255, against 66,525 last year, and 60,148 the year before.

Foreign exports for the 8 months of the season have been 6,641,766 bales, showing a decrease under last season of 1,081,946, and an increase over the same period year before last of 1,026,250.

Stocks at the seaboard and the 29 leading interior markets on April 30 were 848,785, against 966,271 the same date last year, and 955,753 the year before.

Including port and interior town stocks left over from the previous season and the number of bales of the current crop brought into sight during the 8 months, the supply has been 10,757,701, against 12,899,741 last year, and 10,464,202 the year before.

Up to April 30, last year, 93.27 per cent of the cotton crop had been marketed, and for the same 8 months in 1906 the percentage of the crop brought into sight was 88.22, and for the same time in 1905 the percentage marketed was 85.3.

The amount of the crop brought into sight for the eight months from September to April, inclusive, is 2,192,000 behind last year; 40,000 over the year before last, and 1,125,000 behind 1905.

In addition to the monthly figures, Secretary Hester issued today a statement of the weekly movement for the seven days ending May 1, inclusive, showing a total brought into sight this year 89,515, against 109,292 for the seven days ending May 1, last year; 110,686 year before last, and 159,552 same tiime in 1905.

World's Visible Supply Statement.

New Orleans, aMy 1.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton made up from special cable and telegraphic advices compares the figures of this week with last week, last year and the year before. It shows a decrease for the week just closed of 167,751, against a decrease of 115,431 last year and a decrease of 117,765 year before last.

The total visible is 3,852,390, against 4,020,141 last week, 4,823,197 last year and 4,241,729 year before last. Of this the total of American cotton is 2,656,514, against 2,794,265 last week, 3,368,197 last year and 2,664,729 year before last, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 1,195,876, against 1,225,876 last week, 1,455,000 last year and 1,587,000 year before last.

The total world's visible supply of cotton as above shows a decrease compared with last week of 167,751, a decrease compared with last year of 970,907 and a decrease compared with year before last of 389,339.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton as above there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and continental Europe 2,188,000, against 2,888,000 last year and 2,121,000 year before last; in Egypt 214,000, against 166,000 last year and 126,00 year before last; in India 610,000, against 812,000 last year and 1,063,000 year before last, and in the United States 840,000, against 957,000 last year and 932,000 year before last.

Taking of American Cotton by Spinners.

New Orleans, May 1.—Secretary Hester gives the taking of American cotton by spinners throughout the world as follows, in round numbers:

This week 227,000 this year, against 238,000 last year and 226,000 year before last.

Total since September 1 this year 9,114,000, against 10,164,000 last year and 9,012,000 the year before.

Of this northern spinners and Canada took, 1,477,000 bales this year, against 2,350,00 last year and 2,095,000 the year before; southern spinners 1,810,000, against 1,920,00 last year and 1,813,000 the year before, and foreign spinners 5,827,000, against 5,894,000 last year and 5,104,000 the year before.

COTTON IS DOWN 22 TO 29 POINTS

Lost Most of the Previous Day's Gain.

Market Opened Easy at Advance. Bear Pressure and Better Weather in the South Caused the Decline and the Market Closed Easy.

New York, May 1.—The cotton market lost most of yesterday's gain during today's trading, closing easy at a net decline of 22@29 points. Sales were estimated at 350,000 bales.

The market opened easy at an advance of 9@12 points on May and June, unchanged on July and 8 to 10 points lower on later positions. The near months responded to higher cables, but later deliveries were weak, owing to heavy liquidation by recent buyers, a renewal of bear pressure, better weather in the belt, and a bearish private acreage report, indicating an increase of 4.5 per cent. The failure of expected frosts to materialize in the belt was also a factor, no doubt, and before the decline was checked prices showed a net loss of 18@20 points. A rally of a few points from this level, led by July, which at one time sold 10 points over October and showed evidences of accumulation by strong interests, was followed by renewed weakness during the afternoon under southern selling, such as was prominent earlier in the week, continued local liquidation and bear pressure. The close was within a point of the lowest. Another private crop report, issued at midday, indicated an increase of 4.2 per cent in acreage and a favorable start, with planting and farm operations about 15 per cent ahead of 1907. Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to ⅛c higher.

Receipts at the ports today 7,956 bales, against 9,013 yast week and 9,186 last year. For this week 60,000 bales, against 58,757 last week and 73,081 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 10 points lower; middling uplands 10.20; middling gulf 10.45; sales 21,700.

Futures opened and closed easy.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, La., May 1.—Cotton, spots were quiet, 3-16 cent down on low ordinary, ordinary, good ordinary and low middling, and 1-16 down on all other grades. Middling 9 15-16. Sales were 1,200 bales on the spot, and 1,000 to arrive.

Futures opened barely steady, 11 to 13 points below the close yesterday, as a result of good weather predicted for the belt. After the opening the market continued to decline throughout the day, the bullish confidence brought by unseasonable temperatures two days ago giving way to bearish conditions. At the close, which was steady, the active months were 29 to 31 points below the close yesterday.

Sea Island Cotton.

Charleston, S. C., May 1.—Receipts none; exports none; sales 15 bags; stock 2,457 bags; quotations omitted.

Savannah, Ga., May 1.—Fancy Florida 25@26c, nominal; fancy Georgia 25@26c, nominal; extra Florida 17½@18½c; extra choice Georgia 17@18c; choice 15@16c; extra fine 13c; fine 11@12c; common 9@10c; sales 1,075.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, May 1.—On the better weather in the cotton belt, the market became heavy from the opening, with the south sending large selling orders through nearly every commission house.

This volume of offerings broke the price some 28 points from yesterday's close, with the tone easy. The weight of this selling is a surprise even to those who expected a sharp reaction from yesterday's quick advance, and doubtless it will have an effect abroad. On the break, slow buying by spinners and by yesterdays' sellers absorbed the offerings, but could not steam the tide of weakness. The stock of contract cotton here has lost 8,000 bales during the past few days. In Liverpool the feeling was better on an increased demand from Manchester, but the decline here was too much for them.

The temper tonight is naturally bearish, after the selling pressure from the south.

STOCKS SHOWED MUCH STRENGTH

Attributed to Demonstration in St. Paul Stock.

Made by House Credited With Representing Interests Influential in the Company—Also Gave Strength to Other Securities.

New York, May 1.—Stocks developed a strong tone again today under the inspiration of a demonstration effected in St. Paul by a house credited with representing interests influential in the company and leaders of many extensive speculative movements in the past. News developments to account for the rise were lacking. St. Paul's $100,000,000 stock issue in December, 1906, anticipated the exhaustion of the capital supplies in the market, and, together with the similar eager demands of Great Northern and Northern Pacific, was given large responsibility for the glutted condition in which the market for investment securities was thrown. But this important financing, accomplished at that period, left these companies at less disadvantage in the difficult circumstances which developed in the later financial crisis. This advantage is stated to account for the present extraordinary strength of the group, the two Hill stocks sharing in the benefit. In the rest of the list the strength shown was more moderate, and some portions of the list did not extend at all. The dealings did not expand to near the stage of activity when highest prices were touched on Tuesday and Wednesday. Pennsylvania rose quite conspicuously, in face of reduction in the dividend rate from the top prices. This was in consonance with the action of other stocks on which dividend reductions have occurred recently, notably Atchison and New York Central, and is indicative of how far the reductions have been discounted in the speculation. Some effect on sentiment was produced by the absence of further gold export engagements for tomorrow's steamer.

Foreign exchange rates here, in fact, receded during the morning, while the private discount rates in London and Paris were reported lower, and there was a sharp advance in the Paris rate of exchange on London, all these movements serving to relieve the pressure on New York of the gold outgo, the preliminary estimates of the currency for gold. In addition to this cessation movement with the interior gave evidence of the sustained heavy flow to this center. Losses to the subtreasury, which include payments for gold exported and some returns of government deposits in anticipation of next week's call, amounted to $4,785,000, but this apparently has been offset almost two fold by the receipts on balance on the interior movement. Another substantial addition to banking cash is thus promised. United States Steel was backward, and Copper was lower, both in London and New York. Reports of wintry weather and danger of damage to the crops were ignored. A stock exchange holiday in London contributed something to the dullness of the market. The closing tone was very strong, and with prices rising rapidly in some directions.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,460,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

ORDER SIGNED BY JUDGE SPEER

Complaint Filed Against Roads by Georgia-Florida Sawmill Association.

Brown House, Macon, Ga., May 1.—(Special.)—Attorneys representing H. H. Tift and others forming the Georgia-Florida Sawmill Association filed complaint in the United States court today against the railroads of the Southeastern Tariff Association on account of alleged failure of the lines to make the returns every three months of such collections of freight charges on lumber to Ohio river points and the west as come under the ruling in the famous Tift case in which a permanent injunction ordered by Judge Emory Speer stopped the payment of an extra 2 cents per hundred pounds.

Judge Speer signed an order in the bill today requiring the railway lines to show cause before him in Macon, on May 12, why they should not be called upon to pay over the $500,000 indemnity bond they made when the court agreed to allow the returns to be made and the shipments to continue under the tariff which was attacked by the Timbermen. A large number of claims have been established by the lumber producers under the arrangements, but it is now a requirement upon the part of the railway lines that they make reports of what amounts they have received on the extra tariffs every three months.

Douglasville Defeats Dallas

Douglasville, Ga., May 1.—(Special.) Douglasville defeated Dallas here this afternoon by the score of 5 to 1.

This is the second game that locals have taken from Dallas this year having defeated them on their own grounds by score of 3 to 1.

The feature of the game this afternoon were the pitching of Selman for Douglasville and that of Cooper for Dallas, each man having the batters at his mercy. Errors on the part of Dallas boys gave the home team three runs, while two were earned.

Batteries—For Dallas, Ragsdale and Cooper; for Douglasville, Selman and Enterkin.

INSTANT RELIEF FROM CATARRH

Send for a Trial Sample of This Great Remedy, and Convince Yourself of Its Merit.

When we say that Eclipse Catarrh Cure gives instant relief from that disagreeable, offensive disease from which so many suffer, we are ready to prove this assertion to your entire satisfaction. No matter how long you have been afflicted, no matter how badly stopped up your head may be, the sample which we will send you will give immediate relief, clear up the clogged air passages, throw off the offensive accumulations, and soothe and heal the delicate, irritated membrane.

Eclipse Catarrh Cure is a vegetable preparation of wonderful curative powers. It promptly reaches the remotest air passages, where the disease is located, and effects a permanent cure in even the worst cases.

Mrs. E. A. Bryant, Rome, Ga., Writes:

"I want to tell you how much good your medicine has done for me. Before I used your remedy I suffered so much with Catarrhal deafness I could hardly hear at all, but now I can hear as well as I could before I had Catarrh.

"I am now sixty-eight years old, and have never had anything to do me as much good as your medicine.

"I advise everyone who has catarrh to get and use the Total Eclipse Catarrh cure."

Send for Week's Treatment.

We are anxious for every sufferer to try this great remedy and will send for twenty-five cents in stamps a liberal trial treatment and a pipe to all who will send us their name and address. We have hundreds of letters from grateful patients whom we have cured and will send you also our booklet containing these testimonials and full information about the disease. Do not delay, but write today. Address Eclipse Medicine and Manufacturing Company, Atlanta, Ga.

Delayed Passengers.

Queenstown, May 1.—The fog here made it impossible for 130 passengers who were awaiting the Cunard line steamer Caronia to embark on that vessel when she passed here early this morning. They will be taken by the Mauretania, which leaves next Sunday.

AT JAMAICA.

Jamaica, N. Y., May 1.—Tileing, showing big improvement, easily won the Corona selling stakes at a mile and one-sixteenth at Jamaica today with E. Dugan up. He was heavily backed, being played down from 8 to 5, to 11 to 10, while Juggler, the odds-on favorite, went back in the betting. Sir Toddington, the only other starter, ran unbacked. The result was never in doubt. Dugan sent Tileing to the front soon after the start, and easily maintained his advantage to the end, winning by two lengths. Juggler was under a hard drive for a quarter of a mile, but could never gain on the leader. The weather was cold and only a small crowd turned out today.

FIRST RACE—Four and a half furlongs: Preceptor, 107 (G. Burns), 7 to 2, won; Occidental, 103 (Shilling), 10 to 1, second; J. H. Reed, 107 (Musgrave), 6 to 5, third. Time, 56. Idomitable, Sight and Wamboro ran.

SECOND RACE—Six furlongs: Trumps, 109 (Notter), 7 to 5, won; Almandine, 104 (Musgrave), 2 to 1, second; Twigs, 105 (Shilling), 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:15 3-5. Slumberless, Gold Franc, Select, Rosario, Sparker, Ariel, Evident, Alabama and Goshen star ran.

THIRD RACE—One mile and a sixteenth: Light Wool, 120 (Shilling), 8 to 5, won; Berkley, 112 (McDaniel), 11 to 10, second; Zienap, 118 (Musgrave), 9 to 2, third. Time, 1:49 2-5. Umbrella ran.

FOURTH RACE—The Corona stakes, mile and a sixteenth: Tileing, 108 (Dugan), 11 to 10, won; Juggler, 107 (McDaniel), 9 to 10, second; Sir Toddington, 106 (Burns), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:48. Only three starters.

FIFTH RACE—Selling, mile and a sixteenth: Alauda, 96 (E. Dugan), even, won; Complete, 96 (McCarthy), 6 to 1, second; Good Luck, 113 (McDaniel), 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:51. D'Arigle, Al H. Woods and Royal Lady ran.

SIXTH RACE—Four and a half furlongs: Havre, 108 (Musgrave), 5 to 1, won; Tod, 108 (Notter), 7 to 1, second; Lilly Pad, 105 (G. Burns), 5 to 2, third. Time, 56 4-5. Ruble, Trios Temp, The Robin, Taxidermist, Grania and Thistle Belle ran. Miss Battenberg fell.

SOMETHING MUST BE DONE OR SERIES CANNOT GO ON

The first report of trouble on an Arkansas League diamond came to President Craighead, when Umpire Scotty Moore reported from Brinkley that Robert Shelton, of Newport, had used unprintable language to him on the field, and that "something must be done at once, or the series cannot progress." The president is investigating.

BURNS READY TO POST $5,000 AGAINST JOHNSON

London, May 1.—Tommy Burns, the heavyweight champion, has offered to deposit $5,000 with the National Sporting Club to cover an equal amount which it is announced Jack Johnson, the colored heavyweight pugilist who arrived here last Monday, has put up there. Burns points out, however, that the National Sporting Club knows his terms, which remain unchanged. Burns insists that he must have $30,000 as his share of the purse, but he says that Johnson can arrange the side bet to suit himself.

The fight between Burns and Bill Squires, of Australia, which was scheduled to take place May 11 at the Stafford Bridge Athletic grounds in Chelsea, has been called off, the club having failed to put up the money.

Alabama 1, Drury 0.

Tuscaloosa, Ala., May 1.—(Special.)—The university defeated Drury, Mo., here today in a brilliant ten-inning game, the final score being 1 to 0. It was a pitchers' battle between Long and Sturdivant. Long allowed three hits and Sturdivant four hits. Reidy, centerfielder for Alabama, made a run and catch of a line drive labeled for three or more bags in the tenth and saved the day for Alabama. Batteries: Sturdivant and Vaughn for Alabama; Long and Vann for Drury.

University of Alabama also won the interstate track meet at Auburn today by the score of 55 to 44.

Carpenter, Baggot & Co.

New York, May 1.—Cotton: On our opening the near positions started off in a confident way, showing advances in sympathy with the improvement abroad, but heavy selling for both accounts was in evidence by the time the fall months were reached, these positions opening at declines instead of advances as due on the cables. The official forecast predicting better weather and a private estimate showing an increase in acreage of 4.5 per cent, with conditions better than two years ago, were influences that led to realizing by recent buyers, and encouraged the bears to again reinstate their short lines covered recently. The decline of 20 points was quick, and the bulk of selling was done around the low figures of the morning, where excellent support was given, which led many to believe that recent bull leaders had encouraged and helped along this setback so as to shake out trailers. Too much importance should not be placed in acreage reports coming out, for first preparations were made when cotton was 150 to 200 points higher than it is today, and some abandonment we think may be looked for with prices at present levels. Reports say that recent weather has caused damage and considerable replanting will be necessary. Will this replanting take place at the present market price? It would seem that the farmer would prefer to buy our contracts and not replant, as it would be money in his pocket, with food stuffs as high as at present.
